8 Charlotte Doe

I make jewellery from hand-painted, printed and gilded papers, sections of these are combined to create the different designs. Usually sold under the name Circle & Dash, please see www.circleanddash.com. I also make a range of thrown porcelain household wares, including bowls, vases and mugs, mostly finished with satin glazes in a muted colour palette. Throwing taster sessions also available during open studios. www.charlottedoe.co.uk

153 Aasiri Wickremage

I am a Sri Lankan born British artist specialising in abstract mix media art and abstract landscape paintings. I have been part of several exhibitions and art fairs. Artist in curated online galleries such as Singulart art (UK) Artling, (Asia, Hongkong), Gallerique (USA) and Saatchi. I have sold work both locally and internationally. Upcoming group shows - London art biennale, Autumn show with Gagliardi gallery London. www.aasiri.com

154 Ali Tomlin

My work is a collection of thrown, elegant porcelain forms. I use a limited palette of stains, oxides and slips, sponging and scraping colours and inlaying lines, working on the wheel to capture a feeling of movement and spontaneity. Surfaces are unglazed and lightly sanded, with a matt, tactile surface. www.alitomlin.com
Directions: Coming from the Hog's Back, turn left after Farnham Golf Club and we are the first turning on the right.

155 The Studio

We are a trio of painters located within the grounds of a majestic country house. We work mainly with acrylic paint on canvas. Visitors can expect to see three individual styles expressing sea, landscapes and still life:

Jillie is known for her portrayal of dramatic landscapes as well as her delicate paintings of wild flowers gathered in the Surrey Hills.

Liz for her use of acrylic paint and resins to create playful images emanating the colour and drama of the countryside surrounding The Studio at Littleworth Cross.

Susie for her acrylic abstracts focusing on the texture explored within seascapes and landscapes in the UK, US and Caribbean.

156 Magpie Contemporary Art

Pop-up gallery exhibiting beautiful art and craft from over 20 artists in a contemporary house and garden.

www.magpiecontemporaryart.co.uk

Directions: From The Barley Mow pub, head out of the village on Littleworth Road. Long Hill is the first road on the right, then look out for the Magpie signs.

157 Teri Berry

I specialise in the magical and ancient art of felt-making, turning fluffy wool fibres into beautiful and functional wearable art (hats, bags, clothing) and homewares. Felt-making demonstrations and workshops available during the SAOS fortnight please see www.teriberry.com for details. Commissions welcome.

Directions: from the church on corner of Westwood Ln, 3 houses on your right or 200m on your left from junction with Glaziers Ln towards Aldershot.

158 Robyn Horsburgh

Robyn's work is strong and colourful, subjects vary and her large flower and fruit acrylics are dramatic and sensuous. email: robyn.horsburgh@btinternet.com

159 Jean Tolkovsky

My hand built figurative ceramics which are inspired by fairytales, memories and observations, evoke a sense of nostalgia and invite interpretation. I also produce some garden pieces and silver jewellery. www.jeantolkovskyceramics.com

Directions: From A322 Bagshot Road at Fox Corner roundabout follow directions to Pirbright. Immediately at sharp left bend turn right to park in Berry Lane. Walk back 1 minute you will see house opposite Fox Pub.
