

Role on the wall for Tom's character

Inside the template - Reference the book when thinking about how the character feels about himself, how the character feels about others, like and dislikes the character has, their history, dreams/worries/regrets of the character.

Outside the template - Reference the book when thinking about what the character looks like, what we think and other characters think of him,

