

Annie Lennard Primary School SEND Information report.

1	What kind of special education needs and disability provision is available for children at Annie Lennard Primary School?	Annie Lennard Primary School is a fully inclusive school, which ensures that all pupils achieve their potential; personally, socially, emotionally and academically in all areas of the curriculum. This is regardless of their gender, ethnicity, social background, religion, sexual identity, physical ability or educational need. The broad areas of need for SEND provision are not definitive; individual children often have needs that are within all of the areas; children's needs may change over time; the purpose of identification is to work out what action or support is needed, not to fit a child into a category. Broad areas of need: • Communication and interaction difficulties • Cognition and learning • Social emotional and mental health • Sensory and/or physical
2.	How do we identify children who may have a SEND need?	Children entering our Nursery and Reception classes are screened using the WELLCOM language assessment. Pupil progress meetings/discussions are held every half term from which we track and identify children who are not making expected national progress or whom the teacher thinks have a specific need/difficulty which may need to be addressed. Interventions/support programmes are then implemented and monitored to ensure that the child makes progress. If children join us from another setting, we will request information from the previous setting; this will help establish a clear and informative view of the child, which in turn will help establish when/where they will need support and how this support will be delivered. The school's Special Educational Needs and Disability Policy is also used to identify children with a specific need.
3. a	How is the intervention support monitored as to its effectiveness?	Pupil Progress half termly assessment meetings are held, with LSPs and Teachers, to monitor the effectiveness of intervention. This allows us to adapt or continue to deliver the intervention to ensure the child's continuing progress. A cycle of assess, plan do and review will be instigated with all parents being kept informed throughout and the child's views being taken into account. Progress of children in EYFS (Reception/ Nursery class) will be monitored closely and any SEND concerns raised with both SENDco and parents. At our school, there is effective communication between Teachers, LSPS and the SENDco to ensure the child's specific needs are effectively met. Interventions are assessed at an early stage for effectiveness, and alter accordingly if not having desired impact. The progress of all groups of children (including those in EYFS), and individuals, are tracked half termly.

		Learning Support Service (Local Authority) is bought in to monitor and review individual pupils on a termly basis (parents invited to attend). Educational Psychology services are bought in to support specific pupils (monitor and review on a rolling programme). Termly meetings held with Speech and Language Service. Informal meetings with SENDco and parents to assess progress and review actions.
b	What are the school's arrangements for assessing and reviewing progress of children with SEND?	Yearly SAP meetings with Inclusion Support are held to assess the need of the school. SENDco meets parents on a regularly basis both informally as needs arise and formally a set point throughout the year. Both of our SENCos work with the following outside agencies to assess and review provision made: • Learning Support Service (Local Authority) is bought in to monitor and review Support Plus pupils on a termly basis (parents invited to attend). • Educational Psychology services are bought in to support specific pupils to monitor and review on a rolling programme). • Termly meetings held with Speech and Language Service.
c	What is the school's approach to teaching children with SEND?	• Quality first teaching within the classroom through differentiation. • Multi-sensory teaching. • Intervention matched to the child's individual needs. The following are delivered by both teachers and teaching assistants: • Identified small group teaching (a range of interventions available). • Precision teaching methods 1:1 • 1:1 teaching
d	How does the school adapt the curriculum and learning environment for children with SEND?	• Quality first teaching, differentiation matched to the needs of the child. Teacher to have full responsibility for the child and to plan, adapt teaching where appropriate, ensuring full inclusion. • Equal opportunities, all children are entitled, and encouraged to, join in every curriculum opportunity • Specific equipment is bought in to match the child's specific needs.
e	What additional support is available for children with SEND?	• Educational Psychologist • Speech and Language Service • Specific training programmes for TAs e.g. Precision Teaching, Code X reading intervention, Reading Recovery, Lego Therapy. • Behaviour outreach support (Sycamore Outreach) • Learning Support Assistant support for specific pupils • Specific equipment • Small group work
f	What support is available for ensuring the emotional and social development of pupils with SEND?	• Educational Psychologist • SEMH teacher • Individual Behaviour Plans in place to support specific pupils (set up in consultation with parents and pupil) reviewed and amended regularly.
