

ONLINE TEACHING RESOURCES

Useful links for free resources.

App of the week: Treble Cat Lite and Bass Cat Lite

Treble Cat and Bass Cat Lite are two separate apps designed to help students practise their note reading skills in both the treble and bass clefs. These excellent apps will effortlessly help to improve a student's sight reading skills.

Designed in collaboration with professional musicians and educators.

Website of the week: Out of the Ark Music

Out of the Ark Music are offering free resources available to use during these challenging times. Out of the Ark are releasing 7 new songs a week to help with the routines and rhythms of your new daily life.

All of the songs released are complete with challenges and activities relating to each song. The days of the week include: Move it Monday, Together on Tuesday, Well-being Wednesday, Thinking Thursday, Fun Friday, Family Saturday and Faith filled Sunday.

<https://www.outoftheark.co.uk/ootam-at-home/>

Other useful links: ABRSM's Play On

What motivates you to practise?

Star performers Sheku Kanneh-Mason and Mylene Klass talk about 'slow practise', motivation, and the need to find new and creative ways to practise pieces in this video available on the ABRSM website.

<https://gb.abrsm.org/en/inspire/learn/what-motivates-sheku-and-myleene-to-practise/>

Other useful links: Compose your own Doctor Who Theme

Find out how to make your own Doctor Who theme.

Learn to compose music using found sounds and music software.

Discover more about Delia Derbyshire and how the first Doctor Who theme was written.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zhdfscw/articles/zkkrbmd>