

Health and Social Care AQA GCSE (Double Award)

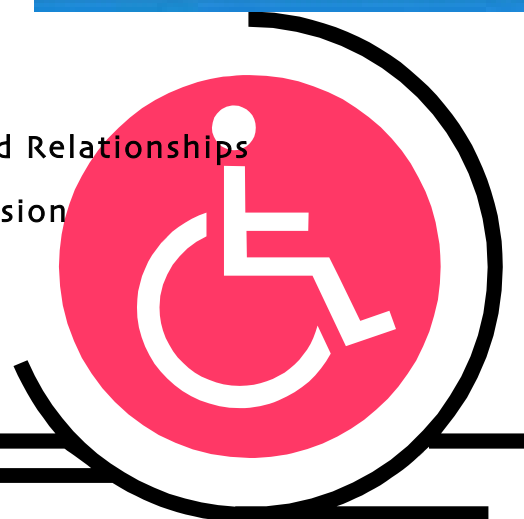

What will I study?

Unit 1: Understanding Personal Development and Relationships

Unit 2: Health, Social Care and Early Years Provision

Unit 3: The Nature of Health and Well-Being

Unit 4: Promoting Health and Well-Being

How will these qualifications benefit me?

- They will provide you with knowledge and understanding of what the caring professions are all about.
- Actively engages you in the processes of health and social care to develop as effective and independent learners
- Encourages you to understand aspects of personal development, and the health, social-care and early-years sectors through investigation and evaluation of a range of services and organizations
- Allows you to examine issues which affect the nature and quality of human life including an appreciation of diversity and cultural issues
- Develops your awareness of the influences on an individual's health and well-being, and an understanding of the importance of motivation and support when improving health

How can I progress with these qualifications?

- Start work at trainee level in a Health and Social Care role
- Progress to the 'A' Level or Level 3 qualification in Health & Social Care

How is the AQA GCSE in Health & Social Care assessed?

Unit 1: Understanding Personal Development and Relationships

External exam 20% of the total marks 70 marks 1 hour 15 min

Stages of physical growth and intellectual/social/emotional development.

Question paper is a mixture of short-answer, structured and free-response questions.

Unit 2: Health, Social Care and Early Years Provision

Controlled internal assessment 30% of the total marks 80 marks 20 hours

Needs of client groups, access and barriers to provision and work roles.

Requires the completion of two tasks that will be internally assessed and externally moderated.

Unit 3: The Nature of Health and Well-Being

External exam 20% of the total marks 70 marks 1 hour 15 min

Definitions, common positive and negative factors.

Question paper is a mixture of short-answer, structured and free-response questions.

Unit 4: Promoting Health and Well-Being

Controlled internal assessment 30% of the total marks 80 marks 20 hours

Measurements of health and well-being; promotion and support for improvement.

Requires the completion of two tasks that will be internally assessed and externally moderated.

For any further questions please contact

Mr.Fatodu

