World Food Week

This week we have been supporting World Food Week. Children have had the opportunity to taste different meals from around the world which will help a child have a meal across 63 countries, often in the hardest to reach areas. We were joined by Marcela from Unilever who spoke to the children about the organisation and the different foods they would be tasting. What an exciting week. Thank you for your support.

Glamba Samba Club for Year 1 & Year 2

There are still places available for children in Year 1 and Year 2 at the above club starting on Tuesday 8 November. If your child would like to take part & has not already registered their interest please ask for a letter from the school office. All children will be notified whether or not they have gained a place.

Did Your Child Attend Little Lambs Pre-School?
