

As a musician I will learn:

- How to compose and rehearse my own Christmas song.
- How to perform Christmas songs to an audience at our performance at the church.

As a geographer I will learn:

- How the local area has changed over the years.
- How rivers impact on our local areas.
- How local areas have been affected by events such as the Olympics and WW2.

As a designer I will learn:

- How to use questionnaires to provide market research for my design.
- How to design a product using recycled materials.
- How to evaluate my design against original criteria.

In my personal development I will learn:

- That there are different types of friendship.
- How to use different types of conflict resolution.
- How to deal with emotions effectively.

As a historian I will learn:

- About how our local area has changed over the years.
- Why local areas have changed and the impact on the people who live there.

As a sport person I will learn:

- How to compose gymnastic routines using given criteria.
- How to create dance routines in a particular style.

As an IT expert I will learn:

- How to stay safe online.
- How to create safe and secure passwords.
- How to advise others about how to stay safe online.

In RE I will learn:

- The accounts of the Christmas story in the Bible.
- About how important the Christmas story is to Christians.

As a scientist I will learn:

- How to separate and classify materials.
- Why materials are chosen for specific uses.
- How to plan and conduct experiments.

As a writer I will learn:

- How to write effective diary entries.
- How to write formal and informal letters.

Our theme and topic will be:

Christmas

As a reader I will learn:

- How author's use inference and deduction in diary entries.

As a mathematician I will learn:

- How to measure, draw and find missing angles.
- How to find square and cube numbers.
- How to use multiplication facts to find division facts.