

Privacy Notice for staff

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the school uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'Privacy Notices' (sometimes called 'Fair Processing Notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This Privacy Notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals we employ, or otherwise engage, to work at our school.

We, Round Oak School and Support Service, Brittain Lane Warwick CV34 6DX, are the Data Controller for the purposes of data protection law.

Our Data Protection Officer role is met through the School Data Protection Officer service provided by the Local Authority (see 'Contact us' below).

The personal data we hold

We process data relating to those we employ, or otherwise engage, to work at our school. Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about you includes, but is not restricted to:

- Contact details.
- Date of birth, marital status and gender.
- Next of kin and emergency contact numbers.
- Salary and annual leave.
- Bank account details, payroll records, National Insurance number and tax status information.
- Recruitment information, including copies of right to work documentation, references and other information included in a CV or cover letter or as part of the application process.
- Qualifications and employment records, including work history, job titles, working hours, training records and professional memberships.
- Performance information.
- Outcomes of any disciplinary and/or grievance procedures.

- Absence data.
- Copy of driving licence.
- Photographs.
- Data about your use of the school's information and communications system.

We may also collect, store and use information about you that falls into "special categories" of more sensitive personal data. This includes information about (where applicable):

- Health, including any medical conditions, and sickness records.

Why we use this data

The purpose of processing this data is to help us run the school, including to:

- Enable you to be paid.
- Facilitate safe recruitment, as part of our safeguarding obligations towards pupils.
- Support effective performance management.
- Inform our recruitment and retention policies.
- Allow better financial planning.
- Improve the management of workforce data across the sector.
- Support the work of the School Teachers' Review Body.

Our lawful basis for using this data.

We only collect and use personal information about you when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we use it where we need to:

- Fulfil a contract we have entered into with you.
- Comply with a legal obligation.
- Carry out a task in the public interest.

Less commonly, we may also use personal information about you when:

- You have given us consent to use it in a certain way.
- We need to protect your vital interests (or someone else's interests) in an emergency.

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent, and explain how you go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify the school's use of your data.

Collecting this information

While the majority of information we collect from you is mandatory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide to us.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

How we store this data

We create and maintain an employment file for each staff member. The information contained in this file is kept secure and is only used for purposes directly relevant to your employment.

Once your employment with us has ended, we will retain this file and delete the information in it in accordance with the Information and Records Management Society's toolkit for schools.

Data sharing

We do not share information about you with any third party without your consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Here is a list of the organisations with which we might share personal information about you, the purpose and the legal reasons we share this information:

To meet our legal obligations

- The Department for Education - to share certain information, such as the school census (see below).
- Our Local Authority – information such as safeguarding concerns.
- Ofsted - to allow the service the school provides to be nationally assessed.
- Police forces, courts and tribunals.

To allow suppliers to provide the service for which we have contracted them

- Capita SchoolComms – staff usernames to facilitate communications with parents.
- Leafhopper Evolve+ - staff usernames to manage external school events.
- Local Authority ICT Development Service – to provide IT services including backup of our network data and the School Information Management System (SIMS).

- Other Local Authority Services – to provide legal and support services for the school.

To carry out our public task

- Solar – staff usernames to access online target and assessment tool for pupils.
- Examination boards – staff usernames to access, activate and validate external pupil assessment.

To allow emergency services to provide vital and immediate help

- Medical staff and Emergency Services.

Transferring data internationally

Where we transfer personal data to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area, we will do so in accordance with data protection law.

Your rights

How to access personal information we hold about you

Individuals have a right to make a 'Subject Access Request' to gain access to personal information that the school holds about them.

If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you, we will:

- Give you a description of it.
- Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for.
- Explain where we got it from, if not from you.
- Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with.
- Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this.
- Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form.

You may also have the right for your personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

If you would like to make a request, please contact our Data Protection Officer.

Your other rights regarding your data

Under data protection law, individuals have certain rights regarding how their personal data is used and kept safe. You have the right to:

- Object to the use of your personal data if it would cause, or is causing, damage or distress.
- Prevent your data being used to send direct marketing.
- Object to the use of your personal data for decisions being taken by automated means (by a computer or machine, rather than by a person).
- In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data corrected, deleted or destroyed, or restrict processing.
- Claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the data protection regulations.

To exercise any of these rights, please contact our Data Protection Officer.

Complaints

We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously.

If you think that our collection or use of personal information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate, or have any other concern about our data processing, please raise this with us in the first instance.

To make a complaint, please contact our School Data Protection Officer (see 'Contact us', below).

Alternatively, you can make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office:

- Report a concern online at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
- Call 0303 123 1113.
- Or write to:
Information Commissioner's Office,
Wycliffe House,
Water Lane,
Wilmslow,
Cheshire,
