Dear Parents/Carers

26th February 2021

I hope you are all safe and well and that you had an enjoyable half term break.

I'm sure you heard the announcement from the Prime Minister on Monday that all schools will be returning on Monday 8th March. All of us here are very excited, and cannot wait (as I'm sure you are!), to welcome the children back and return to some form of normality.

In regards to the organisation of the school day, drop-off and pick-up times, we will return to the routines that we were doing before Christmas, if you can remember that time – it seems so long ago! I will send out all that information again next week just to remind you.

Next week, we will be celebrating World Book Day (hopefully you have seen the letter from Mrs Peters which was sent out earlier this week). We are excited to see the children's reading dens and potato book characters. Also, please keep an eye on the school's Twitter page for the St Joseph's Masked Reader! Hope you enjoy guessing 'who's behind the mask?!'

Thank you to everyone who has been saying their prayers for Nottingham Forest! Their form has definitely improved of late! I hope you all have a lovely weekend - hopefully the sun will stay shining!

God bless

Mr Briggs
