Dear Parents / Carers

I am delighted to say that, after much hard work and dedication by many staff and governors over several years, St Joseph's officially became part of the Blessed Holy Family Catholic Academy Trust on Wednesday 1st May 2019.

To mark this wonderful occasion, our Year 5 joined the children from the Sacred Heart Language College, St John Fisher School and St George's School to celebrate this new and exciting collaboration and attended a Mass, celebrated by Bishop John Wilson at St Joseph's Church.

I am proud to say this is an important moment for the future of Catholic Education in Harrow. Below is the new logo for the Academy, and all four schools were presented with a plaque with the logo which will be displayed in school.

On Tuesday, 30th April, Years 3 and 4 attended a basketball tournament at Pinner High School. They had a great time and represented the school with pride. It was a pleasure to hear that several people commented on our children's excellent behaviour and attitude.

Also this week, Reception, Years 1 & 2 took part in scooter training. This was a great opportunity for the children to practise their scootering skills. All the children had a great time and thoroughly enjoyed the experience. A big thank you to Miss Keaveney for arranging this important training for the children.

Let's hope the sun shines for the long weekend!!!!

Have a lovely weekend

Mr C Briggs
 Headteacher
