Dear Parents and Carers,

Harvest Festival

Unfortunately, on reviewing the weather forecast for tomorrow, we will be holding the Harvest Festival in school. This is due to the heavy rain forecast and the high possibility that the children would be walking to or from the church in rain.

As we are not walking to church, we are able to bring the timings forward;

- Eagles and Falcons – 9:15am – 9:45am
- Robins, Starlings, Owls – 10:00 – 10:30am

All food donations are very gratefully received and as there is now no need for the children to carry them to the Church, please feel free to send what you can. They will be distributed to local Food Banks.

Photographs and Videos

As highlighted in the recent newsletters, we are asking parents not to take videos or photos of the performance. This is inline with the Rivers Multi Academy Trust policy with ensures that vulnerable children within the trust are kept safe as there have been recent cases where children have been identified through shared images on social media. However, we will be filming the services and uploading the photos and videos onto the secure Class Dojos, so you will still be able to see the filmed performance. This is also to help any parents who are unable to attend. You are welcome to take individual photos at the end of the performance.

I look forward seeing many of you at the Harvest Festival tomorrow.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs Howitt
Headteacher
