Story Trip Trap Trouble By Rose Impey
<https://youtu.be/U5BjJWOKyA0>

What do you think the story is trying to teach us? Have you ever had something that didn't turn out as you'd hoped? What are some ways you can show you are grateful?

Topic

Today is NSPCC's number day. We have been doing all kinds of activities in school to mark this day.

Activity:

Design a poster displaying all the significant numbers in your life. The numbers you include might be:

- How old you are.
- Your house number.
- Your shoe size.
- How tall you are.
- How much you weighed when you were born.
- The number of brothers and sisters you have.
- The total number of people in your family.

Try to think of other numbers which may be special for you.

Literacy – Reading and spelling
