The Aldhelm Gathering 2023

An extraordinary event inspired by an extraordinary saint!

A very special event called the 'St Aldhelm Gathering' is taking place on Saturday 20th May 2023, 10am – 4pm at Sherborne Abbey. This event celebrates St Aldhelm – the man who our school is named after. He was a Saint, poet, musician, riddle-writer, miracle worker, church builder and much more. Churches, schools and organisations who have links with St Aldhelm, have all been invited to take part.

Over the past two weeks, the children have all completed learning and activities about St Aldhelm ready for members of the St Aldhelm's Church to take with them to the event. Mother Robyn has even helped some of our children write a song which will be performed there.

We warmly invite our school families to attend, if they are able to, to take part in the celebrations.

From 10am, there will be a Medieval Fayre, with stalls and short performances, on the green outside Sherborne Abbey. At 3pm, there will be a special service taking place in the Abbey. This will be a celebration of St Aldhelm, a remembrance of him and a rededication to the importance of his ministry.
