Dear Parents/Carers,

RE: Year 6 Residential Experience – October Update

Thank you to everyone who has signed up we now have 70 children going which is brilliant. We have agreed to go to PGL because they have set out a PGL promise due to the current pandemic.

We understand the current uncertainties and we hope our COVID Promise provides the reassurance that teachers and parents are looking for.

Our COVID customer promise

1 COVID Promise If government action with regard to COVID-19 means your group cannot travel, we will transfer your booking or refund all monies paid. Find out more +	2 Extended Payment Terms We have extended our interim and final payment dates to give you better visibility and more time to collect monies. Find out more +	3 COVID Safe and Secure All measures put in place by our Safety and Standards Team to ensure your trip is safe and enjoyable can be found on our website. Find out more +

More information is available on their website: <https://www.pgl.co.uk/en-gb/school-trips/resources/teacher-guide/covid-customer-promise-opt>

The promise covers a full refund in the event of a national lockdown, local lockdown, bubble isolating, whole school isolating or a lockdown at the PGL site itself. They will not refund money to a family if a parent chooses not to send their child.

The remaining payments are due as follows:

Interim payment of £87.50 (Pupil Premium £61) is required by 26/02/2021

Final payment of £87.50 (Pupil Premium £61) is required by 30/04/2021

Please note the finance team will communicate with you when the payments are live on MCAS

If you signed up and have any concerns about your child going, do contact the office.

Many thanks,

The Year 6 Team
