

Kingsdale Sixth Form Scholarship programme

Drama & Theatre

About

This programme is designed to offer drama specialists a deeper insight into the process of theatre making from the perspective of actor, director, writer and designer. Our state-of-the-art theatre and large department of five drama specialists mean we offer the best training possible. Across the 2 years our scholars will participate in:

- Directing an original project as part of our scholars festival.
- Workshops from a host of professional theatres.
- Visiting speakers from the theatre, TV and film industry
- Work experience, career fairs and benefit from industry links.

Our scholars have gone on to Drama School (London/Paris), Film School (Paris) as well as Russell Group Universities.

How to Apply

- Select Drama scholarship as part of the online sixth form application form.
- You will be invited to audition, interview and to submit an essay. Auditions will involve the performance of a 2min monologue. Auditions are completed in the spring term.

Professional partnerships

Past projects

We provide bespoke projects to enhance the interests of our scholars. This has seen past scholars participate in:

- Mentorship from professional playwright and award winning play then performed at the National Theatre.
- Partnership production at the Young Vic.
- New Writing Festival with work written and directed by scholars.
- Festival of Black Writing featuring scholars directing and performing.
- Film-making programme exploring cinematography and culminating in a film festival.
