Route description

The route is known for its strong urban character, taking place in spectacular surroundings. A combination of coastal and inland areas in a mild climate in April. The race has been designed so that runners feel comfortable and can enjoy this beautiful route.

The race will be run on sea level. We offer varied routes, some of them rather technical, combining different types of landscapes including coastal, urban, natural and residential areas with the final arrival at the amazing Magaluf athletics track. The start is near the finish line pace, at the parallel street of the Magaluf Athletics track.
