

This book was a great fantasy novel aimed at KS2. It was a real page turner: I couldn't put it down and was really excited for bedtime - which is when I do all of my reading. Full of magic, monsters and a bit of horror as well. Really reminded me of classic fantasy books I read as a young adult. I would highly recommend this for reader who like quests, strong characters and a lot of magical suspense.

Mrs Marshall

