EEF Guidance. The increased pressure on being able to deliver quality first teaching due to staff isolating significantly reduces the possibility of pupils making the necessary accelerated progress needed. The school usually relies on adults within the school for short term cover As ‘bubbles’ are set and the increased risk of contaminating across bubbles school staff will need to remain in their own bubbles. We must do all we can to reduce the risk of children being sent home again due to isolation and also ensure that they always have quality first teaching.	Quality first teaching remains across the school despite pressures of Covid and on staff absences. All groups of children across the school are enabled to experience a broad and balanced curriculum with consistency.
