P1 Racing Fuels Podium Challenge: Rules

As the official fuel partner of the European Rally Championship (ERC), P1 Racing Fuels is excited to present the P1 Racing Fuels Podium Challenge during the 2020-2022 seasons at every FIA ERC event. This initiative rewards the top 3 finishers in both ERC1 and ERC2 categories. The first edition of the P1 Racing Fuels Podium Challenge will take place at Rally Hungary 2019, and will be run at each event over the following three seasons.

To be eligible, competitors must be registered with the FIA as competitors in either the ERC1 or ERC2 categories.

Fuel:

P1 XR5 (RON 102), a high-end pure component racing fuel designed for maximum performance in rally cars.

P1 Racing Fuels Podium Challenge Prizes:

The top three drivers in both ERC1 and ERC2 categories at each rally will receive a voucher for free P1 XR5 fuel equivalent to the below amounts at every podium ceremony:

1st Place: 150 liters

2nd Place: 100 liters

3rd Place: 50 liters

The voucher can only be issued in the name of the winning competitor.

Validity of the P1 Racing Fuels Podium Challenge Prize:

Vouchers for free fuel can only be redeemed within the subsequent five ERC events the winning competitor contests in, from the time the prize is won. The prizes can be carried over from one season to the next one until the last race of the year 2022.
