

► IDEAL FOR Weekends or proper holidays, this porch gives you a lot of space

There are four straps that hold only the shoulders of the awning in place

As an extra step, you can tighten the strap with the spring strap

There are four straps that hold the tent's flysheet in place

We can't see the spring strap, but it's there to hold the tent in place

Key features

- The legend
- The interior has a lot of space
- The awning is big enough to hold a table

Key features

- The interior has a lot of space
- The awning is big enough to hold a table

Key features

- The interior has a lot of space
- The awning is big enough to hold a table

Recommended Retail Price: The price of the average CARP Tent is around £170, but this is a substantially less, at £110.

Verdict

There's a whopping great porch, almost the size of a flat living room. Long-term tent stays. Porch is big. It's not exactly lightweight, but it's actually constructed. The interior is a great space, and, best of all, it's attached to the tent. Construction is an issue and it's a bit noisy. But it's a big porch, it's a big tent. Only a few things can give you this practical advantage.