

SUPER MARKET FORUM

SUPERMARKET FORUM is an initiative by Supermarket – Stockholm Independent Art Fair first introduced in 2019. This day-long networking event connects Supermarket's exhibitors with contemporary Swedish art scene. The programme allows the exhibitors to meet curators, gallerists, art organisers and representatives of art institutions, present their projects in depth and talk to other participants and guests within a simple framework focused on meetings and tours around the art fair.

4 April 2019 | Sickla Front | Uddvägen 7 | Sickla

Programme items – glossary

Round table stands for lightly moderated discussions in small groups with several outlined topics.

Speed networking is a cover name for fast-paced sessions that serve to introduce the participants, exhibitors and their projects to one another in a relaxed format.

Touring refers to touring the art fair in small groups consisting of Forum participants and exhibitors. Each exhibitor will take the group to their booth and provide a short presentation of the project and artists.

Fika is a very Swedish thing and means an infinite amount of coffee and cake.

Feel free to bring your promotional materials and publications. You can leave them with our staff at the info desk upon registration who will then place it on the display table.
