

Economics Quiz of the week – w/e 28/10/2016

1) This week Nissan announced that they would continue and grow production of cars at their plant in Sunderland. How many people currently work at the factory?

- A 7,000
- B 4,000
- C 3,000
- D 6,000

2) It was announced that the UK economy has grown, despite warnings, since the outcome of the EU referendum in June. By how much has the UK economy grown in that time period?

- A 0.2%
- B 0.5%
- C 1.0%
- D 1.5%

3) The proposed trade deal between the EU and Canada (CETA) was almost cancelled due to the objections of which regional Parliament?

- A Alsace (France)
- B Catalonia (Spain)
- C Wales (UK)
- D Wallonia (Belgium)

4) A project to build a new third runway at Heathrow was announced this week by the Transport Secretary. Who is the Government's Transport Secretary?

- A Justine Greening
- B David Davies
- C Liam Fox
- D Chris Grayling

5) The CBI's director general Carolyn Fairbairn has urged the Government to spend an extra £2bn providing childcare. The plan might push female employment in the UK to which new benchmark?

- A 80% of adult women in work
- B 70% of adult women in work
- C 65% of adult women in work
- D 90% of adult women in work

6) On the 30th October clocks were put back an hour. The original plan for the Daylight Saving Hour was economic and aimed at making savings. When do the clocks go forward again?

- A April 15th 2017
- B April 26th 2017
- C March 15th 2017
- D March 26th 2017

Economics Quiz of the week – w/e 28/10/2016

Answers:
1	A
2	B
3	D
4	D
5	B
6	D

Notes: