

Name: _____ Class: _____
Date: _____ Total Possible Marks: 10

The Biz Quiz - 7 October 2016

1. The Chancellor of the Exchequer flew to New York this week to reassure US banks about Brexit. Who is he?
 (A) Boris Johnson
 (B) George Hammond
 (C) Philip Schofield
2. What have Cuadrilla been given the go-ahead to do?
 (A) Launch their range of spicy sauces in the UK
 (B) Install wind farms in city centres
 (C) Start fracking in Lancashire
 (D) Open a chain of Academies focusing on Business
3. Who has fined TalkTalk a record £400k over a cyber-attack?
 (A) Department for Business
 (B) Information Commissioner's Office
 (C) Ofel
 (D) Ofqual
4. According to the IMF which country will have the fastest-growing economy amongst the G7 nations in 2016?
 (A) Germany
 (B) Japan
 (C) China
 (D) United Kingdom
5. Barclays has exited which country as part of its shift towards focusing on the US and Britain?
 (A) Germany
 (B) China
 (C) Ireland
 (D) Egypt

6. Which retailer has admitted that new regulation requiring more detailed checks on shoppers' finances is hitting its profits?
- A Poundland                       B Tesco
- C Bright House                       D Aldi
7. Which new film describes the story of a disaster at a BP oil well in the Gulf of Mexico?
- A Deepwater Horizon                       B Horizon Falls
- C Drill Disaster                       D Deepwater Down
8. Greggs has admitted that it may soon have to stop selling:
- A Gingerbread men                       B Decaf coffee
- C Loaves of bread                       D Sausage rolls
9. Facebook has launched a new service offering classified ads. What is it called?
- A Facebook List                       B Facebook Sell
- C Facebook Marketplace                       D Facebook Classifieds
10. Which retailer has been bought by Baring Private Equity Asia valuing the business at £250m?
- A Abercrombie & Fitch                       B Zara
- C Cath Kidston                       D Greggs