

Appendix

---

(Suffix boundary)

---

|   |   |
|---|---|
| The singer wasn't very talented        | The old banger broke down on the motorway  |
| The youngest was the most loved        | The hanger came free with the dress        |
| The youngster hated wearing glasses    | The gangster was soon behind bars          |
| The youngster wasn't very well-behaved | The wrongful accusation was very insulting |

---

1. NP-internal boundary

---

|  |   |
|--|---|
| He smiled at the young apprentice     | She was given the wrong amount   |
| They had to cancel the Spring event   | He had lots of strong opinions   |
| It was a test for the young professor | It was a very long performance   |
| He liked feeding the young baboon     | She was bored by the long parade |

---

2. VP-internal boundary

---

|  |   |
|--|---|
| She gave the ring a quick polish                | He offered the gang an apology         |
| He gave the wing a lick of paint                | She gave his slang a disapproving look |
| They offered the King protection from enemies   | He granted the gang permission to stay |
| They promised the King possession of their land | She sent the gang potential targets    |

---

3. VP boundary

---

|  |  |
|--|--|
| The ring adorned her finger       | His slang annoyed the teacher           |
| The wing appeared to be loose     | His tongue attracted unwanted attention |
| The sting became painful          | The bang produced a loud noise          |
| The Spring began with a rainy day | The song began on a high note           |

---

4. Intonational phrase boundary

---

|  |   |
|--|---|
| "Please pass me the string ," Alicia said   | "He doesn't look very strong ," Adele said |
| "I think I was stung ," Estelle said        | "I burnt my tongue ," Elaine said          |
| "I don't know what to bring ," Petunia said | "The price is wrong ," Penelope said       |
| "It's a traditional thing ," Patricia said  | "The film was too long ," Michelle said    |

---

5. Utterance boundary

---

|   |   |
|---|---|
| He was too nervous to get up and sing .              | He couldn't believe the answer was wrong . |
| The bird had damaged its wing .                      | The drink was surprisingly strong .        |
| She couldn't wait for the first few days of Spring . | Her fans didn't like the new song .        |
| Her holiday was ruined by a jellyfish sting .        | The ceremony dragged on too long .         |