

At Felixstowe, Amy gets a little help from Sunday school teacher Alicia.

Faith and fun

CHRISTIAN teaching is provided from an early age at activities such as Sunday schools, after-school clubs and holiday programmes. These are open to anyone.

The Army's Territorial Children's Ministries Unit provides excellent resources for leaders, while the Schools and Colleges Unit produces material for schools.

In conjunction with the Religious Education curriculum, many corps run Ultimate Church Visits where children spend a day at The Salvation Army learning more about the organisation.

Holiday club fun at Cwmbran, South Wales.

After-school club in Southsea.

Bedlington

Bedlington Youth Club celebrated Harvest with a 'best pumpkins' competition – a bit messy but great fun.

Southwark craft day

There was lots of noise, dressmaking, drumming and laughter during a holiday club at Southwark in south London. The corps, which has a multicultural congregation, celebrated Black History Month in October 2011.