Signature

A programme specification is a collection of key information about a programme of study (or course). It identifies the aims and learning outcomes of the programme, lists the modules that make up each stage (or year) of the programme, and the teaching, learning and assessment methods used by teaching staff. It also describes the structure of the programme, its progression requirements and any programme-specific regulations. This information is therefore useful to potential students to help them choose the right programme of study, to current students on the programme, and to staff teaching and administering the programme.

Summary of amendments to the programme:

Section	Amendment
	Removal of reference to the Law Society of Scotland
	Change of Tort Law and Delict (5LAW1026) to Law of Torts (5LAW1044)

If you have any queries regarding the changes please email AQO@herts.ac.uk

Programme Specification LLB (Hons), LLB (Hons) Commercial Law, LLB (Hons) Criminal Justice, LLB (Hons) Government and Politics, Law as a Major / Joint / Minor on the University Joint Honours Programme

This programme specification (PS) is designed for prospective students, enrolled students, academic staff and potential employers. It provides a concise summary of the main features of the programme and the intended learning outcomes that a typical student might reasonably be expected to achieve and demonstrate if he/she takes full advantage of the learning opportunities that are provided. More detailed information on the teaching, learning and assessment methods, learning outcomes and content for each module can be found in Definitive Module Documents (DMDs) and Module Guides.

A. Programme Rationale

This programme is designed to recruit students who are interested in a career in the legal profession. The LLB (Hons) programme weaves together the demands of the Solicitor Regulation Authority's (SRA) Competency Statement, which was introduced in April 2015, along with the Statement of Legal Knowledge and the Threshold Statement, which sets out the level at which the competence statement should be achieved upon qualification as a solicitor. In recognition of the importance of graduate employability, the LLB (Hons) programme (M100) has secured exemptions from the Chartered Institute of Legal Executives (CILEx) meaning that on graduation, students may apply to CILEx for Graduate Membership. In addition, the programme is also accredited by the National Association of Licensed Paralegals (NALP).

In an uncertain climate for legal education, the LLB (Hons) programme offers a demonstrably high-standard of education which aims to prepare students for Stage 1 and Stage 2 of the SRA's Centralised Assessment which is due to be introduced in 2018-19. The Programme prepares students for this assessment in a variety of ways. This includes covering all aspects of the SRA's current Statement of Legal Knowledge in the core aspects of the programme, multiple choice questions (which is currently the SRA's preferred approach for assessing Stage 1) meaning that students will become very familiar with this assessment model. Furthermore, the programme introduces a variety of skills elements that are covered in the current Stage 2 of the SRA's Centralised Assessment (such as interviewing and advising, advocacy, legal research and writing) which are assessed within this programme either summatively or formatively. The LLB (Hons) programme also covers the traditional core modules historically required for an LLB degree, including: Research, Ethics and Skills, Crime and Law, Equity, Trusts, Wills and Succession, European Union Law, Contract Law, Law of Torts, Property Law and Constitutional Law and Politics. The Research, Ethics and Skills module will also cover core aspects of the English and Welsh Legal Systems to provide a degree which covers the academic stage of training currently required by the Bar Standards Board (BSB) of England and Wales, while also allowing international students the ability to complete an LLB Degree which is still recognised internationally. This programme is designed to be at the forefront of the University's new Strategic Plan to be internationally renowned as the UK's leading business-facing university. It offers an education which is driven and informed by research and ensures that the employability of the School's student population is at the centre of this programme.

It is recognised, however, that not all students who commence the LLB (Hons) Programme will want to enter the legal profession upon graduation. Indeed, some students may change their career intentions during their programme of study. Therefore, the programme has inbuilt alternatives which will allow a student to remain on one of the named LLB awards (LLB (Hons) Commercial Law, LLB (Hons) Criminal Justice, LLB (Hons) Government and Politics), while providing increased module choice for students. Students can either join these programmes at year one or opt to switch on to them at the beginning of year 2. In addition, the LLB (Hons) Commercial Law will still be available as an option at the end of year 2, for students who decide at an advanced point of their legal studies that a career in the legal profession is not for them and would like to spend their final year exploring a wider range of modules. Indeed, this LLB Programme is offered alongside the BA (Hons) Criminal Justice and Criminology and BA (Hons) Politics and International Relations Degrees. As there are significant overlaps in these subject areas with Law all LLB students will be able to select modules from these discipline areas if they choose. This will also enhance the unified student community present across the School. Those students wishing to follow a named award in Commercial Law, Criminal Justice or Government and Politics must complete the obligatory module at level 5 and at least 30 credits at level 6 of option choices in that named pathway. (See section D).

Whilst the LLB (Hons) programme has been designed with the demands of the legal profession at the forefront of the development, all programmes are also designed to equip students for a variety of careers outside of the legal profession. The programme is particularly suitable for students interested in pursuing a career in politics, the civil service, business and commerce, research, consumer advice, local government or teaching. Careers advice and support is provided throughout the programme (alongside substantial University careers support) with dedicated Cohort Tutor support who are responsible for all elements of an individual student's pastoral care, including career support, throughout their programme of study. Employability skills are embedded within the core curriculum which, together with the general transferable intellectual skills and key skills identified in Table 2, aim to enhance the marketability of graduates alongside their academic development. The programme has been designed so as to demonstrate a progression of skills from level 4 through to level 6. For example, oral skills are taught and assessed at level 4 whereas advocacy is emphasised at levels 5 and 6. Negotiation exercises are undertaken by all students on the programme at level 5 balancing the adversarial style required by the advocacy assessment. Such activities will also allow for pragmatic assessment of immediately transferable skills beyond the traditional exam / coursework model.

The rationale for the Joint Honours Programme, which includes the BA (Hons) Law with <minor>, BA (Hons) Law and <joint> and the BA (Hons) <major> with Law is to provide a defined but flexible framework for the study of a range of disciplines. The programmes are designed to recruit students who wish to study in more than one discipline or who wish to delay their final choice of specialist subject. Whilst Joint Honours students who are majoring in Law will be able to cover the traditional core modules, these programmes do not cover the SRA's entire Statement of Legal Knowledge. Some modules operate at more than one level to accommodate direct entrants and students on the Joint Honours programme. The learning outcomes on the Definitive Module Documents reflect the different levels of study. Additionally the workshop programme and the assessments mirror the level at which the student is studying the particular module area.

B. Educational Aims of the Programme

The programme has been devised in accordance with the University's graduate attributes of programmes of study as set out in UPR TL03.

Additionally this programme aims to:

- Provide students with the knowledge and understanding to equip them for a career in law, law related areas, or as a staging post for continued academic or professional study at post graduate level.
- Provide students with the support they require in order to enhance their eventual employability through taught skills, teaching methods and assessment within the programmes.
- Provide the students with a sound educational experience that will enable them to acquire a solid grounding in legal principles, which will embrace all the subject specific abilities, transferable intellectual skills and key skills set down in the current Law Subject Benchmarks for England and Wales.
- Stimulate students into adopting an enquiring and critical appreciation of the law as well as developing an appreciation of the contexts in which the law operates.
- Encourage the engagement with Blended Learning initiatives within the School, by adopting a flexible mode of delivery, pedagogy and assessment responsive to the needs of students.

C. Intended Learning Outcomes

The programme provides opportunities for students to develop and demonstrate knowledge and understanding, skills and other attributes in the following areas. The programme outcomes are referenced to the QAA benchmark statements for Law (2015) and the Frameworks for Higher Education Qualifications of UK Degree-Awarding Bodies (2014) and relate to the typical student. Additionally, the SEEC Credit Level Descriptors for Further and Higher Education (2016) have been used as a guiding framework for curriculum design.

ensuring a sufficient knowledge base, as well as developing techniques for dealing with subject specific teaching, application and development.

Two hour group workshops delivered fortnightly allow the student to practice the application of the knowledge based learning and ensuring that the requirements of the SRA's Statement of Knowledge and CILEx are covered. (A1-4).

Throughout, the learner is encouraged to undertake independent study both to supplement and consolidate what is being taught/learnt and to broaden their individual knowledge and understanding of the subject. Timetabled Surgeries are available for students to drop-in and meet their tutors with a view to clarifying any points the student is uncertain about, while other timetabled sessions provide specific opportunity to talk around assessments and also provide specific feedback on students' learning to date.

Learning outcomes A6 – A8 will have specific application to the named award.

Ethics and Skills, Crime and Law, Contract Law, Constitutional Law and Politics, European Union Law, Law of Torts, Property Law, Equity, Trusts, Wills and Succession). These modules will all consider wider international contexts as well.

The assessment breakdown in the modules listed above is through unseen examination (50%), plus a piece of coursework (30%), the remaining 20% will be objective testing through multiple choice questions.

The coursework question will vary from module to module although may comprise drafting, advice and legal research or more traditional written pieces of work based on essays or problem scenarios.

The dissertation module is assessed through an oral presentation (10%), a literature review (20%) and the dissertation (70%).

Intellectual skills	Teaching and learning methods	Assessment strategy
B1 - To examine innovative solutions to complex legal problems through accurate application of values and principles of the relevant jurisdiction(s).	Intellectual skills are developed through the strategies outlined in Section A above. Online activities will be provided for the students to complete outside of scheduled classes in subject specific areas to give additional support to developing specialised skills in those areas of study.	B1 -Intellectual skills are assessed through unseen examinations and written course works and focus on the identifying and appreciation of legal issues raised by a defined problem requiring the student to find solutions using appropriate supporting theories, concepts or values.
B2 - To be able to evaluate critically the accuracy, currency and relevance of a range of primary and secondary sources to lead to evidenced and ethical conclusions addressing complex actual or hypothetical problems.	The development of intellectual skill is being incrementally developed from level 4 to 6. At level 4 materials will be delivered and direction given to specific sources to enable the learner to solve given problems using taught techniques relevant to the topic area (B1). The complexity of the problem solving will increase through level 5 so that by level 6 students will be engaging with a range of data to solve complex scenarios (B3).	B2 - uses a variety of assessment alongside the unseen examinations. All coursework have a written element which will require the student to draw on materials from a wide variety of primary and secondary sources. Diverse forms of written and oral assessments assess, for example advocacy, interviewing and advising and other assessment models.
B3 - To autonomously analyse a range of data using established subject-specific techniques.	At level 5 the learner will receive direction but be expected to find and use materials to perform a given task with background guidance and assistance (B2). By level 6 the learner should be able to tackle the research of complex legal issues and deliver solutions to given problems independently (B3)	B3- assessed by coursework using a variety of assessment methods, which will require the analysis of complex problem or essay type scenarios using a range of developed techniques relevant to the subject matter derived from independently researched material.
B4 – A strong appreciation of the relationship between English and international Law.	Throughout, the learner is encouraged to develop intellectual skills further by independent study
B5 – An understanding of the ethical considerations in law and legal settings.
This learning outcome will apply to students on the LLB Commercial Law.
B6 - A strong appreciation of the core Commercial Law principles.
This learning outcome will apply to students on the LLB Criminal Justice.
B7 - A strong appreciation of the core Criminal Justice and Criminological principles.
This learning outcome will apply to students on the LLB Government and Politics.
B8 - A strong appreciation of the core principles relating to Government and Politics.

Practical skills	Teaching and learning methods	Assessment strategy
C1 - To engage in academic debate while incorporating a professional approach into their work. C2 - To demonstrate effective research skills and intellectual curiosity in assessing theories relevant to law, justice and ethics. C3 - To demonstrate an ability to communicate information, ideas, problems and solutions to both specialist and non-specialist audiences. The following learning outcome is for students on the Placement / Study Abroad option: C4 – Integrate skills learnt into either a 36 week work placement or through studying at an international institution for the academic year.	Practical skills are developed through fortnightly tutorials and workshops. Students will need to be aware of the cultural sensitivities in given contexts and ensure enhanced professionalism in their work (written, verbal and practical) (C1 / C3) The Research, Ethics and Skills module, from the outset, provides the support required to allow the student to perform independently within the managed learning environment, with skills based assessment to ensure library resources and the use of these materials is produced and evidenced in coursework undertaken. (C2). This is reinforced at level 5 in the European Union Law, Law of Torts and Property Law modules. Various modules adopt an assessment strategy that requires communication of complex ideas to ‘non-lawyers’ meaning that students will need to enhance their communication skills to ensure that they make themselves understood. (C3) Definitive Module Documents identify specific assessment strategies for individual modules
Transferable skills	Teaching and learning methods	Assessment strategy
D1 - To communicate researched viewpoints effectively in a range of media, including an ability	Transferable skills are developed through fortnightly tutorials and workshops. Skills can also be	Transferable skills are assessed throughout levels 4-6.

D2 - To demonstrate a developing ability in addressing a range of authentic scenarios through reflection on their own learning, feedback and implementation of improvement strategies.	The aim of the tutorials is to ensure that students are familiar with the key legal concepts and secondly for tutors to demonstrate to the student body how the law applies in a given circumstance.	The nature of the assessment will provide a diversity of written activities which will ensure that students can develop styles appropriate for the designated task.
D3 - To work independently, demonstrate initiative, self-organisation and time management.		Other forms of written communication are undertaken as assessments such as drafting, advice writing as well as more traditional essay writing style of assessment.(D1)
		Oral presentations are undertaken from level 4-6 in a variety of formats, in the form of individual presentations or group work.
		At level 6 students will be expected to be able to work independently with minimum guidance, seeking and making use of feedback. The predominance of researched coursework at level 6 will develop this transferable skill. (D3).

LLB: Three Year and Part Time Students: Progression rules

In accordance with University of Hertfordshire regulations a minimum number of credits have to be successfully completed before a student may proceed from one academic year to the next. Normally 90 credits must be passed each year in order to progress to the following year of study. Students who have secured FNFA in a core module will normally be required to progress on to the LLB Commercial named award.

For a part-time student studying at 60 credits per year, normally 60 credits must be passed each year to progress.

LLB: 2 Year Accelerated Students: Progression rules

Accelerated students on the 2 year LLB have programme specific regulations on progression due to the intensive nature of the programme - see Section 2 below for the full detail of these.

LLB Programmes: 3 Year Full Time (Semester B entrants)

Students commencing the LLB programme (either the LLB (Hons) or named awards in Commercial Law, Criminal Justice or Government and Politics) in Semester B study the level 4 subjects of Research, Ethics and Skills, Crime and Law, Constitutional Law and Politics and Contract Law in Semesters B and C. At the end of the year they will have completed the same modules as the Semester A entrants and will join the Semester A entrants for the second year of study at the beginning of the academic year in September.

The LLB programmes are identical to those offered for the Semester A entrants only the timings in the first year of study will be different.

LLB Programmes: 4 Year Full Time (i.e. Sandwich Year or with a Year Abroad)

Students may enter this programme either in Semester A or Semester B. Students may take a year study abroad or elect to undertake a year of work experience at the end of their second year provided that the progression rules are satisfied.

A named pathway is available if the appropriate options are taken.

LLB Programme – 6 years Part Time – Students may enter Year 1 in Semester A or B

This is an example of the programme over six years:

Year 1	Research Ethics and Skills	Criminal Justice Process
Year 2	Crime and Law	Constitutional Law and Politics
Year 3	Law of Torts	European Union Law
Year 4	Property Law	Commercial Agency Criminal Evidence
Year 5	Equity, Trusts, Wills and Succession	Company Law
Year 6	Litigation	30 credit x optional module (as per table for LLB student journey)

Option modules are chosen from those available on the LLB (Hons) programmes listed. Equally, part-time students may opt for a named pathway route, in which case they would follow the requirements of the named award.

LLB Programme: 2 Year Full Time Accelerated over three semesters in two full years

This comprises two years of study with 180 credits in each year, 120 studied in Semesters A and B of each year with a further 60 credits undertaken at level 5 in Year 1 Semester C and level 6 in Year 2 of Semester C.

Accelerated students can only commence the programme in Semester A and undertake the compulsory 120 credits in Semesters A/B of Year 1. Semester C comprises two level 5 30 credit modules and this completes Year 1 – 180 credits.

In Year 2 – students undertake the remaining 60 credits at level 5 together with 60 credits at level 6 in Semesters A and B, followed by the remaining 60 level 6 credits in Semester C.

Students will be unable to cover the SRA Statement of Legal Knowledge or the requirements for CILEx and NALP on the two-year accelerated programme. It will be possible to undertake a named pathway on the 2 year LLB.

	Semesters AB				Semester C
Year 1	Research Ethics and Skills (4LAW1017)	Contract Law (4LAW1020)	Constitutional Law and Politics (4LAW1018)	Crime and Law (4LAW1019)	EU Law (5LAW1025)	Law of Torts (5LAW1044)

Programme-specific assessment regulations

The programme complies with the University's academic regulations (in particular, UPR AS11, UPR AS12/UPR AS13 and UPR AS14) with the exception of those listed below, which have been approved by the University:

Two Year LLB (Accelerated)

Progression Regulations:

Under University regulations, students on two year undergraduate programmes are permitted a maximum study rate of 180 credits per academic year. Each three semester year (A/B and C) of the 2 year LLB comprises 180 credits of study.

In order to progress to Year 1 Semester C of the 2-year LLB, students must have achieved 120 credits at level 4 in year 1 Semester A/B by the end of the second sit period.

Year 1 students who have not achieved 90 Level 4 credits at first attempt in Semesters A/B will be transferred onto the 3 year LLB programme, prior to commencement of Year 1 Semester C.

In order to progress to Year 2 of the two year LLB accelerated programme, a student must have passed all 180 level 4 and level 5 credits contributing to the first year of the two year programme, including passing any 30 credits of Level 4 referral on their second attempt.

Students not meeting the above requirements at the end of Year 1 Semester C will be transferred onto the 3 year LLB route of study.

Year 2: LLB 2 Year programme students who do not complete 180 credits during their second year of study may be transferred to the 3 year LLB programme for completion of their studies.

Further points of clarification and interpretation relevant to this specific programme are given below:

Placement Year / Year Abroad

Students who want to undertake a Placement Year or Year Abroad can normally progress on to one of these awards on completion of 210 credits at the end of level 5.

The new LLB programme was introduced in September 2016 and will roll out gradually over the next three years. All students who began their course from September 2016 onwards have enrolled on the new programme and will be dealt with according to the assessment structures which were validated in January 2016. For students who enrolled on the previous LLB programme prior to September 2016, they will be informed of their personal transitional arrangements following the Module and Programme Boards.

The A-Z of the University of Hertfordshire is an introduction to the academic, social, cultural and sporting services and opportunities available at the University of Hertfordshire, and includes the Student Charter and Student Code of Conduct.

As a condition of registration, all students of the University of Hertfordshire are required to comply with the University's rules, regulations and procedures. These are published in a series of documents called 'University Policies and Regulations' (UPRs). The University requires that all students consult these documents which are available on-line, on the UPR web site, at: <http://www.herts.ac.uk/secreg/upr/>. In particular, UPR SA07 'Regulations and Advice for Students' Particular Attention - Index' provides information on the UPRs that contain the academic regulations of particular relevance for undergraduate and taught postgraduate students.

The UK Quality Assurance Agency for Higher Education (QAA) has confirmed the quality and standards of provision at the University of Hertfordshire. A key part of QAA's role is to review and report on how universities maintain their academic standards and quality, to inform students and the wider public. The team of QAA reviewers visited the University of Hertfordshire in 2015/16 and judged that its academic standards, the quality and enhancement of its students' learning experience, and the quality of information about this learning experience all meet UK expectations. In other words, the University meets national requirements for standards and quality.
