

Study with us

About your course

Courses covered

Code	Title	UCAS Code
LALLB	Bachelors of Law LLB (Hons) Government and Politics Sem A entrants	M190

You can find full details of your course in the Programme Specification.

Important points

- This course is regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority (SRA), in which students have to undertake the compulsory modules in order to gain a qualifying Law degree.
- You will experience an innovative 'flipped classroom' learning and teaching model, which includes; online lectures, large group sessions, critical reasoning sessions, masterclasses, tutorials and two-hour workshops. The course also offers open surgery/ drop in sessions for one-to-one help and guidance.
- You will become part of a vibrant community, linking and studying with Criminal Justice and Criminology students.
- Alongside your degree, you will also have the opportunity to study co-curricular activities to enhance law based research, advocacy, presentation and writing skills.
-

Academic Year

Academic Year 2018 - 2019

The University's academic year is made up of 3 Semesters. For most undergraduate students the academic year is split into two Semesters (A & B). Each of these is made up of teaching weeks followed by exams (the re-sit period falls within Semester C)

- Semester A runs from Monday 17 September 2018 to Friday 11 January 2019
- Semester B runs from Monday 14 January 2019 to Friday 17 May 2019
- Semester C runs from Monday 20 May 2019 to Friday 13 September 2019

Expected workload

In the UK, a full time student is expected to spend 1200 hours on their studies each year. Please find below an estimate of how your time will be spent on this course during each year of study.

	Lectures, seminars, tutorials	Independent study	Placement
Year 1	28%	72%	0%
Year 2	32%	68%	0%
Year 3	28%	72%	0%

Method of assessment

	Written Exam	Coursework	Practical
Year 1	38%	54%	8%
Year 2	38%	62%	0%
Year 3	13%	87%	0%

Additional expenses

Books

Undergraduate study requires extensive reading and access to reference works. Recommended texts are available in the Learning Resources Centre, however, students may wish to purchase their own copies. The average price of a recommended text is approximately £50, although you may be able to buy second-hand copies.

Trips

Many courses involve occasional trips away from the University. These vary from day trips to places of relevance and interest, which could be local or further afield, to residential field trips which may involve travel abroad. You may be required to make some contribution to the costs of travel and accommodation and to the subsistence element of such visits and trips whether these are compulsory or optional parts of the course.

Placement/study abroad year

The University does not charge tuition fees for their placement year but may incur additional costs i.e. travel and accommodation.

There may be a tuition fee charge for a study abroad year. Further details are available in the attached 'Fees and Finance' policy.