

Study with us

About your course

Courses covered

Code	Title
LALLMLPC	LLM Legal Practice

You can find full details of your course in the Programme Specification.

Important points

- The LLM Legal Practice is a combined LLM and Legal Practice Course which meets the Solicitors Regulation Authority's requirements for the vocational stage of training.
- The programme is subject to the approval of the Solicitors Regulation Authority and all modules must be passed in order to gain the award.
- Students will study for one year, across three semesters, covering the Stage 1 and Stage 2 SRA learning outcomes, as well as completing a bespoke module in Semester C, Evidence Based Marketing for Legal Services Professionals, and an extended research project.
- Teaching will take place over two full days per week, Wednesday and Thursday.
- Students will study the three core modules and the core legal skills during Stage 1.
- In Stage 2, students will choose three optional modules in which to specialise during Semester B. The options include: Alternative Dispute Resolution, Commercial Law, Commercial Property, Employment Law, Family Law, Housing Law, Immigration Law, Personal Injury and Private Client and Estate Planning.
- The range of optional (elective) modules and the Evidence Based Marketing for Legal Services Professionals module are designed to enhance student employability by specifically focusing on the needs of local and regional law firms, as well as providing a good foundation of legal knowledge for students interested in a career in the City.
- As an LLM course, students will be able to access the postgraduate loan from Student Finance England to help offset the cost of their studies.
- Merit-based scholarships will be available to UH graduates.
- Students will be part of a thriving academic and research community within Hertfordshire Law School, with opportunities to engage with the School's highly-popular portfolio of co-curricular activities.

Academic Year 2018 - 2019

The University's academic year is made up of 3 Semesters. For most postgraduate students the academic year is split into two Semesters (A & B). Each of these is made up of teaching weeks followed by exams (the re-sit period falls within Semester C)

- Semester A runs from Monday 17 September 2018 to Friday 11 January 2019
- Semester B runs from Monday 14 January 2019 to Friday 17 May 2019
- Semester C runs from Monday 20 May 2019 to Friday 13 September 2019

Additional expenses

Books

Postgraduate study requires extensive research and access to reference works. Core textbooks will be provided to all LPC students, however any additional textbooks are available in the Learning Resources Centre, or can be purchased. The average price of a textbook is approximately £25-£50, although you may be able to buy second-hand copies.