Important points

The Advanced Clinical Practice is a programme for registered health professionals who are working at higher levels of practice and who want to develop their career to become Advanced Clinical Practitioners. The programme is designed to enable students to achieve the capabilities of advanced practice as set out in the Multi-professional Framework for Advanced Practice (MPF) (Health Education England, 2017). The MPF (2017) incorporates four pillars of practice – advanced clinical practice, leadership and management, research and education.
