Important points

The MSc Project Management programme is accredited by the Association for Project Management (APM).

This programme is to equip themselves with the knowledge, skills and understanding regarded as necessary for a career in Project Management. MSc Project Management provides a variety of opportunities for students with different interests and backgrounds to unite in learning and applying project management theory and methods.

The programme covers qualitative and quantitative aspects of project management knowledge areas. The curriculum provides students with hands-on exercises and a range of practical knowledge and skills that could be applied immediately in any project management work environment. This programme also allows students to consider opportunities for further academic development and research in the field of Project Management.

MSc Project Management is based on robust academic content, and founded on the thorough understanding of the theoretical basis of project management. This basis is informed by latest research in underlying subject disciplines, professional bodies of knowledge and critical appraisal of emerging practice. This programme builds bridges between the theoretical underpinnings and project management practice. The programme includes critical evaluation and highlights the limitations of theory in its application and the challenges provided by emerging practice.
