Important points

- Our accelerated 2-year LLB Programme allows you to complete your training in two years instead of the normal three. You will start in either September or January and then study over two years, including through the summer.
- On graduation you would have covered the foundations of legal knowledge required by the legal professional bodies in England and Wales so you can proceed to further training to become a solicitor or barrister.
- You will experience an innovative 'flipped classroom' learning and teaching model, which includes; online lectures, 2-hour weekly seminars and academic support sessions.
- You will have a dedicated Academic Support Tutor who will provide academic support and personal guidance, including careers support, throughout your time at University.
- You will become part of a vibrant School community, with undergraduate and postgraduate students in the fields of Law and Criminology.
