Important points

- Accredited by the Institution of Engineering and Technology (IET) as fulfillment, in part, of the learning requirements for Chartered Engineer (CEng) status.
- To comply with IET accreditation regulations students must achieve in all 15 credit point modules, after all available attempts under the University regulations, a minimum of 30% (in any allowable attempt) at levels 4, 5 and 6, before the board of examiners will be able to consider compensation for an accredited honours degree. A maximum of 30 credit points can be compensated across the programme, in line with University regulations. Compensation is not permitted for individual modules worth 30 or more credit points at level 4, 5 and 6.
- A compensated pass cannot be awarded for the Individual Major Project, which must be included in the calculation of degree classification.
- Option available to undertake additional study abroad or an Industrial Placement, however, students who have not achieved the minimum progression requirements at the end of level five may not be eligible to take these.
