You can find full details of your course in the Programme Specification.

Important points

Please note that studying on the MSc Global Business Masters requires you to study both in the UK and at one of our partner institutions. This is a compulsory element of the course and it will be your responsibility to ensure you are able to acquire the necessary visas to successfully complete the course.

Students joining the programme in September study the first Semester at the University of Hertfordshire and take second and third Semester at one of our partner institutions, depending on their chosen specialization.

Partner Institution

Hochschule Bremen (HSB)
Universitat de Valencia Estudi General (UV)
Russian Presidential Academy (RANEPA), IBS
University of North Carolina Wilmington (UNCW)
École supérieure des sciences commerciales
d'Angers (ESSCA)

Specialisation

International Logistics and Supply Chain Management
International Marketing
Management in the Emerging Economies
International Finance and Investment
International Entrepreneurship

The entry requirement is standard for all of the IBSA partner universities, although students wishing to specialise in International Finance at UNCW may be asked to take a GMAT test, depending on their previous studies of finance.

If students wish to make changes to their specialisation after registration, there is a deadline to do so. Any requests to change after the deadline has passed will not be considered as this will impact upon the visa application and start date at the partner institution.

Academic Year

Academic Year 2020 – 2021

The University's academic year is made up of 3 Semesters. Normally most undergraduate programmes use Semesters A and B, additionally postgraduate programmes and specific undergraduate programmes use Semester C. Each of these is made up of teaching weeks followed by exams (the re-sit period falls within Semester C).

- Semester A runs from Monday 21 September 2020 to Friday 15 January 2021
- Semester B runs from Monday 18 January 2021 to Friday 21 May 2021
- Semester C runs from Monday 24 May 2021 to Friday 17 September 2021
