Additional expenses

Description	Year	Mandatory/ Optional	Estimated cost
Books Undergraduate study requires extensive reading and access to reference works. Recommended texts are available in the Learning Resources Centre, however, students may wish to purchase their own copies. The average price of a recommended text is estimated at £50, although you may be able to buy second-hand copies.
Trips Many courses involve occasional trips away from the University. These vary from day trips to places of relevance and interest, which could be local or further afield, to residential field trips which may involve travel abroad. You may be required to make some contribution to the costs of travel and accommodation and to the subsistence element of such visits and trips whether these are compulsory or optional parts of the course.
Placement/study abroad year The University does not charge tuition fees for their placement year but may incur additional costs i.e. travel and accommodation. There may be a tuition fee charge for a study abroad year. Further details are available in the attached 'Fees and Finance' policy.
