The School is based at the University's de Havilland campus. Over 70 academic staff, administrative and technical support staff are involved in delivering programmes to around 2000 students. We are a friendly and diverse community and share a keen interest in learning and teaching best practice for a range of educational settings. With a long history of working in the education and training of teachers and other professionals in the education sector, we are an established and dynamic School committed to developing excellence and confidence in teaching, learning and professional practice for individuals in a variety of contexts.

Our underpinning values are:

- the importance of scholarship, research and critical reflection.
- respect and challenge for all learners including ourselves.
- the significance of personal and professional development.
- a shared commitment to quality.

These values enable us to:

- challenge students to realise their potential in a positive and supportive environment.
- provide leadership in the process of academic and professional growth.

Taught sessions are built around discussion, discovery, shared learning and peer review with tutor support and expertise immediately at hand. All modules are constructed so that the focus of the work should be upon students' individual interests and professional requirements.

The MA award is achieved for 180 level 7 credits gained.
