Programme Specification

This programme specification is relevant to students entering:
27 September 2021

Associate Dean of School (Academic Quality Assurance):
Stefanie Schmeer

A programme specification is a collection of key information about a programme of study (or course). It identifies the aims and learning outcomes of the programme, lists the modules that make up each stage (or year) of the programme, and the teaching, learning and assessment methods used by teaching staff. It also describes the structure of the programme, its progression requirements and any programme-specific regulations. This information is therefore useful to potential students to help them choose the right programme of study, to current students on the programme, and to staff teaching and administering the programme.

Programme Specification BSc (Hons) Sports Studies with Psychology

This programme specification (PS) is designed for prospective students, enrolled students, academic staff and potential employers. It provides a concise summary of the main features of the programme and the intended learning outcomes that a typical student might reasonably be expected to achieve and demonstrate if he/she takes full advantage of the learning opportunities that are provided. More detailed information on the teaching, learning and assessment methods, learning outcomes and content for each module can be found in Definitive Module Documents (DMDs) and Module Guides.

A. Programme Rationale

This programme ensures that BSc (Hons) Sports Studies with Psychology graduates gain a solid foundation in both subject areas, in order to promote a range of possible vocational applications, and to provide an attractively balanced and stimulating programme of study. At level 4, all students study 60 credits of Sports Studies modules, and 60 credits of Psychology modules. At level 5 students study 90 credits from selected Sports Studies modules and 30 credits of Psychology modules. At level 6 students study 90 credits from the Sports Studies suite of modules, and study 30 credits of Psychology modules.

The structure features several distinct but interrelated themes, to promote broad understanding and the examination of diverse areas, within an overarching conceptual framework. The dominant programme themes are Sports Development, Sports Business Management and Social, Cognitive and Developmental Psychology, which develop in terms of depth and complexity as the level of study increases. In addition, BSc (Hons) Sports Studies with Psychology students will be introduced to skills for psychologists, and research methods required for Higher Education (HE), and have the opportunity to further develop their research skills and experience within the second and third year.

All students have the extraordinary opportunity to undertake a Sandwich Year placement with dedicated professional and university supervisors to support and enhance their experience. Alternatively, students may choose to study a year abroad at one of the University's academic partner institutions outside of the UK where they may select modules that complement their programme.

The programme has a reputation for academic excellence and intellectual rigour, combining academic depth with significant emphasis on real-world experience. Students benefit from industry-based assignments, guest lectures from recognised experts within their fields, and extra-curricular opportunities which may include excursions to sporting facilities within the UK and overseas. Students experience a research informed programme that enhances employability, and ensures that students are well equipped to have a meaningful career in a field relating to sports and psychology. Throughout the programme, there is an emphasis on the acquisition of transferable skills such as communication, time and task management, and computer literacy.

B. Educational Aims of the Programme

The programme has been devised in accordance with the University's graduate attributes of programmes of study as set out in UPR TL03.

Additionally this programme aims to:

- Enable students to develop a thorough knowledge and critical understanding of a coherent set of topics in the disciplines of sports and psychology
- Facilitate the experience of, and cultivation of ability in, the management, development and evaluation of sports participation and performance
- Provide insight into the range and influence of physical activity, and sport related issues which affect sports performance, development, and employment
- Provide students with the knowledge and transferrable skills that will prepare them for employment in areas related to the disciplines of sport and psychology
- Enhance the post-graduate prospects of students by promoting the development of a balanced portfolio of academic and vocational experience, therein preparing graduates for a wide variety of potential employment opportunities and/or further study

C. Intended Learning Outcomes

The programme provides opportunities for students to develop and demonstrate knowledge and understanding, skills and other attributes in the following areas. The programme outcomes are referenced to the QAA benchmark statements for Events, Hospitality, Leisure, Sport and Tourism, and Psychology, and the Frameworks for Higher Education Qualifications of UK Degree-Awarding Bodies (2014) and relate to the typical student. Additionally, the SEEC Credit Level Descriptors for Further and Higher Education (2016) have been used as a guiding framework for curriculum design.

Knowledge and Understanding	Teaching and learning methods	Assessment strategy
A1- Critically discuss the subject disciplines and themes underpinning the study of sport A2- Critically discuss the range, influence, and scope of sports related issues which affect sports performance, development, management, and employment A3- Evaluate the multi-disciplinary and inter-disciplinary holistic approaches to the study of sports, drawing from both academic and vocational contexts A4- Demonstrate the knowledge base required to monitor, assess, and evaluate sports performance,	Acquisition of knowledge and understanding is through: - For A1 the completion of module assessments, as well as practical sessions and class tasks where knowledge and understanding are applied in action – e.g. critical debates, group discussion work, production of diagrammatic representations of conceptual understanding. For A2 through the broad experience of the programme curriculum For A3 through a range of curricular experiences and module assessments, by the explicit linking of theory and practice in teaching, such as the frequent provision of practical examples, and reference to the theoretical underpinnings of practice	Knowledge and understanding are assessed through a combination of written assessments (including essay assignments, portfolios of evidence, and reflective write ups of experiences), and presentations of various kinds. Knowledge and understanding are also assessed through a combination of unseen, semi-seen or seen examinations (A7-A9) and in-course assessments (A7-A9), in the form of standard essay and case study/practical assignments (A7-A9), and in-class tests and quizzes (A7, A8).

Practical skills C1- Prepare, design and undertake practical activities employing suitable techniques, abilities, principles and procedures C2- Carry out practical work with due consideration for appropriate organisational procedures, safety, and risk assessment C3-Identify and act in response to ethical, moral and safety issues which directly relate to sports contexts (e.g. empowerment approaches), including adherence to applicable codes of conduct and legislation C4- Propose, design, implement and communicate a significant piece of independent academic work, applying their research and problem-solving abilities, and using appropriate methods C5- Search specialist databases C6- Present and evaluate findings from literature For students undertaking the Sandwich Placement: C7 – Apply sport related concepts, whilst undertaking a professional work-based experience at an external sport related organisation	Teaching and learning methods Practical skills are developed throughout the programme through workshops, seminars and practical sessions. They are also further developed by the provision of research methodology workshops at L5 and L6. In addition, practical skills are also developed through essay writing and oral presentations. Throughout, the learner is encouraged to consolidate their development of practical computing skills by use of computers available in the learning resources centre. Throughout there is an emphasis upon the balanced development of vocational and academic abilities. For example, in relation to all themes a critical examination of the why, as well as the what and how of professional practice.	Assessment strategy Practical skills are assessed through assessed through a combination of written assessments (including essay assignments, written reports, and reflective write ups of experiences), and presentations of various kinds. Practical skills are also assessed through the completion of Research Dissertation. Practical skills are also assessed through essays, case study/practical assignments, an in-class tests (C5 – C6).

Transferable skills	Teaching and learning methods	Assessment strategy
D1- Communicate effectively, using a variety of formats D2- Effectively draw upon a range of information services in creatively solving problems D3- Organise and present intellectual argument at a complexity and depth commensurate with the level of study D4- Work effectively both independently (e.g. on assignments, or during the project) and as part of a team (e.g. during group work, and in working with or leading others in work experience) D5- Apply numeracy skills appropriate to the task D6- Develop the qualities (e.g. innovation, enterprise) and autonomy required for continued self-managed professional activity D7- Utilise information and communication technology effectively and appropriately D8 Manage time and work to deadlines efficiently D9 Show respect for the views and ideas of others	Transferable skills are developed through the programme by various curricular experiences - for example, tutorial exercises, practical sessions, student support workshops, and particularly through the Research themes of the degree. Transferable skills are also embedded in the programme and developed through tutor-led study group sessions (D1, D4, D8, D7, D9); feedback on oral presentations and essays (D1); management of coursework schedule (D8). Throughout, the learner is encouraged to develop transferable skills by maintaining a record of evidence and completing a personal development plan, and reviewing performance with personal tutors. Throughout the learner is also expected to consolidate their development of practical information technology skills by the use of computers and software, and associated training opportunities, available in the laboratories and the learning resources centre.	Transferable skills are assessed through a range of assignments built into the programme, but are particularly developed and monitored through the Research themes of the degree. Students will be encouraged to maintain a portfolio of evidence effectively mapping where curricular opportunities arise to show evidence of ability in relation to D1 to D7 (for example, where online submissions are produced as part of assessment, or where presentations require certain software/technology to be used in relation to assessment, for D7), to enable self-assessment of performance and developmental needs, and allow review of performance with field tutor. Transferable skills are further assessed through unseen, semi-seen and seen examinations, essays in-class tests and case study/practical assignments (D1, D4, D7, D8,) and group work (D4).

D. Programme Structures, Features, Levels, Modules, and Credits

The programme is offered in full time (3 years), sandwich or year abroad (4 years) and part-time modes (6 years) and leads to the award of a BSc (Hons) Sports Studies with Psychology, BSc (Hons) Sports Studies with Psychology with a Year Abroad, or BSc (Hons) Sports Studies with Psychology (Sandwich). Entry is normally at Level 4 (with A level or equivalent qualifications).

Professional and Statutory Regulatory Bodies

Not applicable

Work-Based Learning, including Sandwich Programmes

A designated Sandwich programme leads to a University award in the Sandwich mode, and the word "Sandwich" appears on the award certificate. A Sandwich award requires the successful completion of at least 36 weeks full-time equivalent placement activity from a maximum of two separate placements, neither of which should be normally less than 12 weeks in duration, in order for the award to be made UPR (AS11 2.4).

Successful completion of a period of study abroad leads to the award title "With a Year Abroad" if at least two semesters of study have been completed and at least 90 credit points have been accumulated. One semester could be a semester of placement activity abroad (typically, at least 12 weeks), in which case at least 45 credit points shall have been accumulated.

Erasmus Exchange programme

Programme Structure

The programme structure and progression information below (Table 1a and 1b) is provided for the Honours award. Any interim awards are identified in Table 1b. The Programme Learning Outcomes detailed above are developed and assessed through the constituent modules. Table 2 identifies where each learning outcome is assessed.

Progression also depends on meeting the pre-requisite requirements of specific modules. Essential pre-requisites apply in regard to the 6LMS0137 Sports Studies Research Dissertation (for which 5LMS0085 Research Methods for Sports Studies must be passed first).

The award of an Honours degree requires 360 credit points with a minimum of 120 credits at each level 4, 5 and 6, including a pass in the Sports Studies Research Dissertation (6LMS0137).

Essential pre-requisites apply in regards to the L6 Research Dissertation (for which L5 Research Methods must be passed first)

The award of an Honours degree with a Year Abroad or Sandwich Year requires 360 credit points with a minimum of 120 credits at each level 4, 5 and 6, and the successful completion of the Year Abroad (6LMS0189) or Sandwich Placement (6LMS0169) module, respectively.

Part time students study between 60 and 90 modular credits per year, taking account of award requirements and pre-requisite modules as appropriate, typically completing in 5-6 years.

Honours classification

The University has approved structure and assessment regulations common to all programmes. Full details are provided in UPR AS14, Section D.

Table 1b Final and interim awards available

The programme provides the following final and interim awards:

Final Award	Award Title	Minimum requirements	Available at end of Level	Programme Learning Outcomes developed (see above)

F. Other sources of information

In addition to this Programme Specification, the University publishes guidance to registered students on the programme and its constituent modules:

- A Programme (or Student) Handbook;
- A Definitive Module Document (DMD) for each constituent module;
- A Module Guide for each constituent module.

The Ask Herts website provides information on a wide range of resources and services available at the University of Hertfordshire including academic support, accommodation, fees, funding, visas, wellbeing services and student societies.

As a condition of registration, all students of the University of Hertfordshire are required to comply with the University's rules, regulations and procedures. These are published in a series of documents called 'University Policies and Regulations' (UPRs). The University requires that all students consult these documents which are available on-line, on the UPR web site, at: <http://www.herts.ac.uk/secreg/upr/>. In particular, UPR SA07 'Regulations and Advice for Students' Particular Attention - Index' provides information on the UPRs that contain the academic regulations of particular relevance for undergraduate and taught postgraduate students.

In accordance with section 4(5) of the Higher Education and Research Act 2017 (HERA), the UK Office for Students (OfS) has registered the University of Hertfordshire in the register of English higher education providers. The Register can be viewed at: <https://www.officeforstudents.org.uk/advice-and-guidance/the-register/the-ofs-register/>. Furthermore, the OfS has judged that the University of Hertfordshire delivers consistently outstanding teaching, learning and outcomes for its students. It is of the highest quality found in the UK. Consequently, the University received a Gold award in the 2018 Teaching Excellence and Student Outcomes (TEF) exercise. This award was made in June 2018 and is valid for up to 3 years. The TEF panel's report and conclusions can be accessed at: <https://www.officeforstudents.org.uk/advice-and-guidance/teaching/tef-outcomes/#/provider/10007147>
