Title of Programme: Media Programme, English Language Programme, English Literature Programme, History Programme, Philosophy Programme

Programme Code: HUMED, HUELN, HUHIS, HULIT, HUPHL

Subject: Film (Minor)

Programme Specification

This programme specification is relevant to students entering:
20 September 2021

Associate Dean of School (Academic Quality Assurance):
Marjolein Groefsema

Signature

A programme specification is a collection of key information about a programme of study (or course). It identifies the aims and learning outcomes of the programme, lists the modules that make up each stage (or year) of the programme, and the teaching, learning and assessment methods used by teaching staff. It also describes the structure of the programme, its progression requirements and any programme-specific regulations. This information is therefore useful to potential students to help them choose the right programme of study, to current students on the programme, and to staff teaching and administering the programme.

Programme Specification (Undergraduate) Film

This programme specification (PS) is designed for prospective students, enrolled students, academic staff and potential employers. It provides a concise summary of the main features of the programme and the intended learning outcomes that a typical student might reasonably be expected to achieve and demonstrate if he/she takes full advantage of the learning opportunities that are provided. More detailed information on the teaching, learning and assessment methods, learning outcomes and content for each module can be found in Definitive Module Documents (DMDs) and Module Guides.

A. Programme Rationale
The rationale for this provision is to provide students with a structured sequence of modules through which they can develop their knowledge and understanding of topics and methodologies within Film as a minor within the framework of the different programmes on which it is offered.

The provision is designed to recruit students who have some or no previous experience of Film and to complement, support and enhance students’ studies in their major subjects.

Graduates are equipped for a variety of careers including those traditionally open to honours graduates in Communications and related disciplines, e.g. teaching, the civil service, local government, journalism, marketing and communications, media-related industries. The Film provision also prepares students for further study at Postgraduate Level.

B. Educational Aims of the Programme
The programme has been devised in accordance with the University’s graduate attributes of programmes of study as set out in UPR TL03.

Additionally this programme aims to:
- Provide students (including those who are new to the subject) with the opportunity to study a stimulating, challenging and enjoyable, but also balanced, range of topics and materials from different historical and theoretical periods, and a variety of approaches to studying Film;
- Equip students with a range of intellectual and subject-specific skills;
- Equip students with a range of transferable skills.

C. Intended Learning Outcomes
The programme provides opportunities for students to develop and demonstrate knowledge and understanding, skills and other attributes in the following areas. The programme outcomes are referenced to the QAA benchmark statements for Communication, Media, Film and Cultural Studies (2019) and the Frameworks for Higher Education Qualifications of UK Degree-Awarding Bodies (2014) and relate to the typical student. Additionally, the SEEC Credit Level Descriptors for Further and Higher Education (2016) have been used as a guiding framework for curriculum design.

Testing of developed knowledge and understanding of A1, A2, A3, A4 and A7 is through a combination of formative and summative assessments including set essays, group and individual presentations and critical reviews.

Testing of knowledge and understanding of A3, A5 and A6 is through a combination of formative and summative assessment across a range of coursework in the form of essay presentation assignments, the production of a storyboard, and the production of a short film.

Assessment (Level 6)
Testing of knowledge and understanding of A1, A2, A3, A4, A5, A6 and A7 is through a combination of formative and summative assessment including close textual analysis of film texts, individual and group presentations and a range of coursework in the form of essay assignments and critical analysis. Students will also produce a final research project of 5000 words.

sustained independent enquiry.

B3. Evaluate and synthesise a range of theories specific to film and the moving image.

B4. Evaluate and challenge interdisciplinary theories and philosophies in the close analysis of a range of moving image texts.

B5. Read, analyse, interpret and apply ideas from appropriate academic sources and materials in the analysis of moving image texts.

B6. Devise and sustain arguments using ideas and techniques, some of which are key to the discipline, to produce coherent and persuasive arguments.

B7. Demonstrate an ability to write and critically analyse film via a range of journalistic and academic writing styles.

B8. Experiment/innovate in the production of moving image work, challenging conventional forms (written, aural, visual, audiovisual, sound or other electronic media.

Intellectual skills further by independent study.

Assessment (Level 5):
Intellectual skills B1, B2, B3, B4 and B5 continue to be assessed via the above range of formative and summative assessments.

Intellectual skills B6, B7 and B8 are assessed by a combination of formative and summative assessments including essay assignments, production of a number of academic and critical film reviews, the production of a storyboard, and the production of a short film.

Assessment (Level 6)

Intellectual skills B1, B2, B3, B4, B5, B6, B7 and B8 are assessed via the above range of formative and summative assessments including essay assignments, close-reading exercises, group and individual oral presentations, academic film reviews, and an independent research project.

Practical skills

C1. Communicate effectively and use appropriate ICT technology to do so.

C2. Demonstrate effective oral communications skills in the presentation of ideas and arguments.

C3. Have respect for the points of view of others.

C4. Produce work which demonstrates an effective interpretation of moving image and sound and which demonstrates the development of intellectual skills further by independent study.

Practical skills are developed as follows:

Skills C1 and C2 are developed when students are inducted into the facilities of the Learning Resources Centre (use of e-mail, WWW, CD-ROMs) at the beginning of their programme. All written assignments must be word-processed and visual oral presentation assessments will have required outlines in their assessment structure to indicate suitable use of visual presentation software.

Practical skills are assessed as follows:

Skills C1 to C4 are explicitly assessed by a range of assignments built into the curriculum, e.g. coursework essays, oral group presentations and visual and written projects.

Skill C5 is assessed through presentations and production of a short film.
of creative ideas, based upon documented research strategies.

C5. Demonstrate work that meets the requirements of professionalism in film and media practice.

Skills C1, C2, C3, C4 and C5 are developed in both the written and presentation work, which all modules require, and in seminars. Students receive feedback on their ability to communicate their ideas effectively and to reference appropriately. Effective oral communication is developed in seminar and seminar group work.

Skill C5 is developed primarily in workshops and seminar work, but students are encouraged to work alongside others in group work and seminar discussions and presentations in the same professional manner.

Skills are developed in the written work, which all modules require. For coursework, students are assessed not only on their knowledge and understanding but also on their ability to communicate their ideas effectively, to engage with different viewpoints, to reference appropriately and to present work using recognised scholarly conventions.

All modules require student to access the relevant StudyNet sites for module information and seminar tasks; several modules expect student participation in online discussion. It is expected that all written assignments will be word-processed.

Skill C5 is formally assessed at Level 5 in the Film Production module.

D. Programme Structures, Features, Levels, Modules, and Credits

The programme is offered in full-time (3 years) and part-time (5 years), and leads to the award of a BA Degree with Honours.

Entry is normally at Level 4 (with suitable A level or equivalent qualifications) but is possible at Level 5 and Level 6 with suitable accredited prior learning. Entry onto the Humanities Programme is not open anymore for students at Level 4 but is still possible at Level 5 and Level 6 with suitable qualifications, e.g. a relevant foundation degree. Intake is normally in Semester A.

Professional and Statutory Regulatory Bodies

N/A

Work-Based Learning, including Sandwich Programmes

A sandwich award requires the successful completion of at least 30 weeks full-time equivalent placement activity from a maximum of two separate approved placements, neither of which will be normally less than 12 weeks in duration, in order for the award to be made. This is in addition to the period of academic study required for the full-time award. This optional placement year is undertaken after Level 5 and before Level 6 and meets the SEEC criteria for Level 6.

Erasmus Exchange programme

Erasmus students are permitted to study Film modules at all levels.

Programme Structure

The programme structure and progression information below (Table 1a and 1b) is provided for the Honours award. Any interim awards are identified in Table 1b. The Programme Learning Outcomes detailed above are developed and assessed through the constituent modules. Table 2 identifies where each learning outcome is assessed.

Table 1a Outline Programme Structure

Mode of study Full-time, part-time

Students on a part-time mode of study are allowed to take up to five 15 credit modules per year and most normally choose to study between 2 and 5 modules per year, with modules being taken in each semester. Varying rates of study are possible: students can increase or decrease their rate of study year by year or semester by semester in response to their changing circumstances. Students are entitled to take a break from study for a semester or even a year if their circumstances require it. Students can apply to transfer to a full-time rate of study; this should be arranged at the beginning of the academic year.

Programme-specific assessment regulations

The programme complies with the University’s academic regulations (in particular, UPR AS11, UPR AS12 and UPR AS14) with the exception of those listed below, which have been approved by the University:

- None

Further programme-specific regulations (with School-level approval) are given below:

- Progression from one Level to the next depends on meeting the pre-requisite requirements: students must normally have 30 credits in Film at the lower Level before progressing to study of Film at the higher Level.

E. Management of Programme & Support for student learning.

Management

The programme is managed and administered through:

- A Dean of School who has overall responsibility for all programmes in the School
- An Associate Dean of School (Academic Quality Assurance) who has overall responsibility for academic quality, assurance and enhancement with and on behalf of the Dean of School
- An Associate Dean of School Education (Learning and Teaching) who has overall responsibility for learning and teaching with and on behalf of the Dean of School.
- An Associate Dean of School Education (Student Experience) who has overall responsibility for induction with and on behalf of the Dean of School.
- A Head of Media who is responsible for all the modules in the subject area
- Programme Leaders for the programmes on which Film is taught
- Admissions Tutors, with specific responsibility for selection
- A designated administrative team to deal with day-to-day administration associated with the courses and modules within the Programmes
- Programme committees which have a membership which includes all of the above plus student representatives
- Module Leaders who are responsible for individual modules

Support

At university Level, students are supported by:

- Attractive modern study environments in two Learning Resource Centres, incorporating libraries and computer centres
- StudyNet, a versatile on-line interactive intranet and learning environment
- Guided student centred learning through the use of StudyNet.
- Access to extensive digital and print collections of information resources
- A substantial Student Centre which provides advice on issues such as Finance, University regulations, visa applications, legal matters, accommodation, international student support etc.
- The Office of Dean of Students, incorporating Chaplaincy, Counselling and nursery
• Overseas Orientation
• A Medical Centre
• Student Wellbeing: Disability Services
• Student Wellbeing: Counselling Centre
• An Equal Opportunities Officer
• The Students’ Union
• A Careers and Placement Service for all current students and graduates
• Ask Herts deHavilland, the student administration service

At School level, students are further supported by:

• A Head of Media
• A student support team to provide confidential pastoral advice through a daily Helpdesk run during term-time
• Scheduled weekly Student Support and Advice (‘Drop-in’) hours for all academic staff for student support and guidance
• A designated administrative team to deal with day-to-day administration associated with the courses and modules within the Programmes
• Module Leaders who are responsible for individual modules
• A School Community Organiser (SCO)
• A Study Abroad Tutor
• Academic Skills Tutors
• A Tutor for Employability

On the relevant Programme students are further supported by:

• A Programme Leader to help students understand the programme structure and provide confidential academic advice
• An induction session at the beginning of each new academic session
• Personal tutors to provide further academic and pastoral support, with scheduled meetings each semester to advise on academic performance, feedback, module choices, and long term plans
• Student Representatives on the Programme Committee

F. Other sources of information

This Subject Programme Specification should be read in conjunction with the Programme Specification for the English Language Programme, the English Literature Programme, the History Programme, the Journalism Programme, the Media Programme or the Philosophy Programme, as applicable.

In addition to this Programme Specification, the University publishes guidance to registered students on the programme and its constituent modules:

• Programme and Subject information, contained within the School of Humanities Programme StudyNet site;
• A Definitive Module Document (DMD) for each constituent module;
• Module Information for each constituent module, contained within the StudyNet site for the module.

The Ask Herts website provides information on a wide range of resources and services available at the University of Hertfordshire including academic support, accommodation, fees, funding, visas, wellbeing services and student societies.

As a condition of registration, all students of the University of Hertfordshire are required to comply with the University’s rules, regulations and procedures. These are published in a series of documents called ‘University Policies and Regulations’ (UPRs). The University requires that all students consult these documents which are available on-line, on the UPR web site, at: http://www.herts.ac.uk/secreg/upr/ In particular, UPR SA07 ‘Regulations and Advice for Students’ Particular Attention - Index’ provides information on the UPRs that contain the academic regulations of particular relevance for undergraduate and taught postgraduate students.

In accordance with section 4(5) of the Higher Education and Research Act 2017 (HERA), the UK Office for Students (OfS) has registered the University of Hertfordshire in the register of English higher education providers. The Register can be viewed at: https://www.officeforstudents.org.uk/advice-and-guidance/the-register/the-ofs-register/. Furthermore, the OfS has judged that the University of Hertfordshire delivers consistently outstanding teaching, learning and outcomes for its students. It is of the highest quality found in the UK. Consequently, the University received a Gold award in the 2018 Teaching Excellence and Student Outcomes (TEF) exercise. This award was made in June 2018 and is valid for up to 3 years. The TEF panel’s report and conclusions can be accessed at: https://www.officeforstudents.org.uk/advice-and-guidance/teaching/tef-outcomes/#/provider/10007147.

G. Entry requirements

The normal entry requirements for the programme are:

For current entry tariff point requirements, please refer to the relevant page for the Course on the University website or on the online prospectus.

Level 4 for international students on the HIC diploma see HIC entry requirements.

Level 5 for International Students on the HIC diploma:
Successful completion of the HIC Diploma in Mass Communications with a minimum of 120 credits at level 4

Direct entry to Level 4 for international students:
All students from non-majority English speaking countries require proof of English language proficiency, equivalent to an overall IELTS score of 6.5 with a minimum of 5.5 in each band.

For direct entry to Levels 5 and 6 from overseas partners, please refer to the relevant articulation agreement.

The programme is subject to the University’s Principles, Policies and Regulations for the Admission of Students to Undergraduate and Taught Postgraduate Programmes (in UPR SA03), along with associated procedures. These will take account of University policy and guidelines for assessing accredited prior certificated learning (APCL) and accredited prior experiential learning (APEL).
