Important points

- The University of Hertfordshire has over 60 years' experience of teaching engineering, we have long-established links with the industry. Our links with businesses ensure that our courses are tailored to meet the needs of employers.
- Accreditation is a mark of assurance that the degree meets the standards set by the Engineering Council in the UK Standard for Professional Engineering Competence (UKSPEC). All awards on the programme have been accredited by the Institution of Engineering and Technology (IET) for cohort intakes from 2012 up to and including 2024.
- Students must achieve in all 15 credit point modules, after all available attempts under the University regulations, a minimum of 30% (in any allowable attempt) at levels 4, 5 and 6, before the board of examiners will be able to consider compensation for an accredited honours degree. A maximum of 30 credit points can be compensated across the programme, in line with University regulations, and professional body requirements.
- A compensated pass cannot be awarded for the Individual Major Project, which must be included in the calculation of degree classification.
- Students have the option available to undertake additional study abroad or an industrial placement; however, students who have not achieved the minimum progression requirements at the end of level five may not be eligible to take these.

Academic Year

The University's academic year is made up of 3 Semesters. Normally most undergraduate programmes use Semesters A and B, additionally postgraduate programmes and specific undergraduate programmes use Semester C. Each of these is made up of teaching weeks followed by exams (the re-sit period falls within Semester C).

Academic Year 2023 – 2024

- Semester A runs from Monday 25 September 2023 to Friday 15 December 2023
- Semester B runs from Monday 08 January 2024 to Friday 22 Mar 2024
- Semester C runs from Monday 08 April 2024 to Friday 10 May 2024
