

Study with us

About your course

Courses covered

Code	Title	UCAS Code
LALLB	Bachelor of Laws LLB (Hons) Bachelor of Laws LLB (Hons) Sandwich Bachelor of Laws LLB (Hons) with a Year Abroad	M100

You can find full details of your course in the Programme Specification.

Important points

- On graduation you would have covered the QAA benchmark for Law and the core competencies of the Foundations of Legal Knowledge required by the legal professional bodies in England and Wales. These include: Foundations of English law, Constitutional law of the UK and EU, Criminal law, Contract Law, Land Law, Tort Law and Equity. This will enable you to progress onto a professional legal course.
- The embedded skills framework combines legal, academic and transferable skills to ensure that our graduates are work ready.
- You will experience a flexible blended learning model with a 'flipped classroom' structure, which includes: online lectures, weekly two-hour seminars incorporating substantive law and legal skills and additional bespoke large group and one-to-one student support sessions.
- Alongside your degree, you will have the opportunity to partake in co-curricular and pro-bono activities to enhance your legal and employment profile. These include mooting, trial advocacy, debating, mediation and participation in a wide range of activities offered by our Law Clinic.
- You will have a dedicated Academic Support Tutor who will provide academic support and pastoral guidance, including careers support, throughout your time at University.
- You will become part of a vibrant community, linking and studying with Criminology and Criminal Justice students.

Academic Year

Academic Year 2023 – 2024

The University's academic year is made up of 3 Semesters (A, B and C). Semester A and B are made up of teaching weeks followed by exams, where applicable (the re-sit period falls within Semester C). Semester C is normally used for final dissertations and projects.

- Semester A runs from Monday 25 September 2023 to Friday 19 January 2024
- Semester B runs from Monday 22 January 2024 to Friday 10 May 2024
- Semester C runs from Monday 13 May 2024 to Friday 6 September 2024

Expected workload

In the UK, a full time student is expected to spend 1200 hours on their studies each year. Please find below an estimate of how your time will be spent on this course during each year of study.

	Lectures, seminars, tutorials	Independent study	Placement
Year 1	23%	77%	0%
Year 2	21%	79%	0%
Optional Sandwich	0%	0%	100%
Year 3	24%	76%	0%

Method of assessment

	Test	Written Exam	Coursework	Practical
Year 1	6%	0%	91%	3%
Year 2	13%	0%	87%	0%
Optional Sandwich	0%	0%	100%	0%
Year 3	15%	0%	85%	0%

Additional expenses

Description	Year	Mandatory/ Optional	Estimated cost
Books Undergraduate study requires extensive reading and access to reference works. Recommended texts for all core modules are available to students through the University's e-book subscription. Hard copies are also available in the Learning Resource Centre, however, students may wish to purchase their own copies. The average price of a law textbook is £40, although, you may be able to buy second hand copies	1-3	Optional	£500

Trips Many courses involve the occasional trip away from the University. These vary from day trips to places of relevance and interest, which could be local or further afield, to residential field trips which may involve travel abroad. You may be required to make some contribution to the costs of travel and accommodation and to the subsistence elements of such visits and trips	1-3	Optional	Dependent on location
Placement / Study abroad year The University does not charge tuition fees for the placement year, but additional costs may well be incurred i.e. travel and accommodation. There may be a tuition fee for a study abroad year. Further details are available in the attached 'Fees and Finance' policy.	3	Optional	Dependent on location
No additional expenses have been specified for this course.			