Important points

- The LLM Legal Practice is a combined LLM and Legal Practice Course which meets the Solicitors Regulation Authority's requirements for the vocational stage of training.
- The programme is subject to the approval of the Solicitors Regulation Authority and all modules must be passed in order to gain the award.
- Students will study for one year, across three semesters, covering the Stage 1 and Stage 2 SRA learning outcomes, as well as completing Marketing and Business Development for Legal Professionals in Semester C.
- Teaching will normally take place over two full days per week.
- Students will study the three core modules and the course skills (Professional Conduct and Regulation, Taxation and Wills and Administration of Estates) during Stage 1.
- In Stage 2, students will choose three optional modules in which to specialise during Semester B. Subject to demand, the options include: Commercial Law, Commercial Property, Employment Law, Family Law, Immigration Law, Private Acquisitions, Personal Injury and Private Client and Estate Planning.
- The range of optional (elective) modules are designed to enhance student employability by specifically focusing on the needs of local and regional law firms, as well as providing a good foundation of legal knowledge for students interested in a career in the City.
- As an LLM course, students should be able to access the postgraduate loan from Student Finance England to help offset the cost of their studies.
- Merit-based scholarships will be available to UH graduates.
- Students will be part of a thriving academic and research community within Hertfordshire Law School, with opportunities to engage with the School's Law Clinic and portfolio of co-curricular activities.
