Important points

- As a student on the History Programme you may study History as a single honours subject from your first year onwards.
- You may also study a joint degree with English Language, English Literature, Philosophy. You may also study a degree with Journalism, Film and Creative Writing.
- The course can be studied both full and part time.

Attendance Requirement

You are expected to attend 100% of all timetabled teaching sessions. You will benefit from this because students who attend tend to get better marks and degrees. Engaging with other students is also part of the learning experience.

If you cannot attend a class, you should contact the class tutor (whose details will be on the module Canvas site); you should also consult the module Canvas site for any handouts or classroom materials stored there.

Terms and Conditions

The History Programme is designed to offer flexibility, but timetabling constraints may mean that some combinations of modules may be unavailable. Where a clash of modules occurs students will be asked to choose a different module. Where a module i.e. a self-contained taught unit is under-subscribed, the University reserves the right not to run that particular module and to place students on their “reserve” choice.

Some modules may have minimum entry requirements, such as achieving a particular grade or taking enough modules in the subject to qualify for a final year dissertation.

Academic Year

Academic Year 2024 – 2025

The University's academic year is made up of 3 Semesters (A, B and C). Semester A and B are made up of teaching weeks followed by exams, where applicable (the re-sit period falls within Semester C). Semester C is normally used for final dissertations and projects.

- Semester A runs from Monday 23 September 2024 to Friday 17 January 2025
- Semester B runs from Monday 20 January 2025 to Friday 9 May 2025
- Semester C runs from Monday 12 May 2025 to Friday 5 September 2025
