Important points

- The University of Hertfordshire has over 60 years' experience of teaching engineering, we have long-established links with the industry. Our links with businesses ensure that our courses are tailored to meet the needs of employers.
- To comply with professional body regulations students must achieve in all 15 credit point modules, after all available attempts under the University regulations, a minimum of 30% in any allowable attempt, before the board of examiners will be able to consider compensation for an accredited honours degree. A maximum of 30 credit points can be compensated across the programme, in line with University regulations.
- A compensated pass cannot be awarded for the Individual Project which must be included in the calculation of degree classification.
- Options are available to undertake additional study abroad or an Industrial Placement.
- Students who have not achieved the minimum progression requirements at the end of level 5 may be prevented from undertaking a sandwich placement. Similarly, students who have not completed 120 credits at level 4 and 120 credits at level 5 with an average of at least 60% may not be eligible for the study abroad option.
