Important points

- The MSc International Business programme is designed for those aiming for a career within an international business setting or roles requiring an understanding of International Business.
- It covers various perspectives, including economics, marketing, entrepreneurship, financial management, and HR. The programme will enable students to build a comprehensive understanding of a wide range of business-related disciplines and their interconnections.
- Across the programme, students will develop essential skills such as effective communication in English, numeracy, multicultural teamwork, and an awareness of cultural, socio-economic, and political differences in business contexts. They will also adopt a reflective approach to learning, integrate information technology tools, and critically analyse complex business problems to find creative solutions. These skills are enriched by the development of a deeper knowledge and understanding of theories relating to international business.
- Additionally, the programme offers students a choice of business electives, which provides the opportunity to pursue individual interests.
