

Authorisation for disclosure of your personal information

MANGOPAY S.A. ("MANGOPAY", "we", "us") is the payment service provider processing the payments on the crowdfunding platform ("the Partner's Platform") on which you have registered as a user. In order to finalize your investment on the Partner's Platform, you must authorise MANGOPAY to disclose some information relating to you to the credit institution or the notary ("the Third-parties") in charge of validating the financial transactions recorded as part of the investment project.

About Mangopay :

We are a licensed electronic money institution with its registered offices at 2 Avenue Amélie, L-1125 Luxembourg and registered in the Luxembourg Business and Companies Registry under number B173459, authorised by the Luxembourg Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier ("CSSF").

Your statement :

You hereby authorize us to disclose your personal information to the designated credit institution or notary, associated with the investment project in which you financially participated. The disclosure will be strictly limited to these Third-parties and will be carried out on a one-off basis, for each investment you make. The scope of the present authorisation extends to any investments you carry out through the Partner's Platform.

The disclosure may concern the information listed below. We always ensure that the disclosure is strictly limited to the information necessary to fulfill the defined purpose (i.e. validation of your investment operation(s)).

- Name and surname
- ID card number
- Postal address
- E-mail address
- Amount of your contribution to the project
- Date of the contribution

Withdrawal of your authorisation:

Your authorisation may be withdrawn by contacting MANGOPAY at the following address: legalteam@mangopay.com. Withdrawal of authorisation will not impact the legality of prior disclosure. In case you withdraw your authorisation, the Third-parties won't be able to complete your investment. As a result, your investment operations and access to the Partner's services will be impaired. In the event you terminate your subscription to the Partner's services or to our own services, the present authorisation will be considered as automatically revoked.
