GOLF & CASTLE EXPERIENCE

A golf break fit for a laird

With a legacy that spans six centuries, there is no finer place to play a round of golf than the country that gave the game to the world. There are over 550 golf courses to choose from so you'll never be far from fairways and greens suited to your level. If you're new to the sport or want to improve your game Villiers can help with professional tuition. A weekend in Scotland wouldn't be complete without a stay in a traditional Scottish castle. You will be the lord of the manor in your very own Scottish castle. Fairytale or haunted? Fascinating history and world-class service are all to be discovered.
