

HUB International sponsored the event, along with several other prominent Utah companies and organizations

SALT LAKE CITY--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Beloved Utah singer-songwriter Peter Breinholt, along with his band, performed at Camp Kostopulos (Camp K) on Saturday, June 30, to a crowd of 350 attendees. Ticket and sponsorship proceeds directly benefited Camp K and its programs. The event was presented by the Sandy division of HUB International, an insurance brokerage firm specializing in employee benefits administration.

Breinholt and his band performed at Camp K for nearly two hours, entertaining the crowd with song selections spanning his discography, along with a small selection of popular cover songs. Breinholt first rose to fame in Utah when his debut record became the best-selling independently released album ever in the state. Released in 1993, "Songs about the Great Divide" was described by Salt Lake Magazine as an underground classic.

Kostopulos Dream Foundation/Camp Kostopulos is a non-profit organization whose mission of inclusion and diversity ensures that people with disabilities are included within the Utah community. Camp K CEO Mircea Divricean, recently named CEO of the Year by Utah Business Magazine, said the event was a massive success for the organization. "We really do great things here at Camp K, so it's wonderful to witness such a wellspring of support from within our community. It gives me hope that we can continue our mission here for a long time."

In 2017, Camp K was awarded a perfect score from Charity Navigator, the only charity within the state to earn such a score. Proceeds from the event went toward funding Camp K's many programs designed to improve the quality of life for people of all abilities through education, recreation and growth opportunities.

Brent Bennett, Utah Market Leader for HUB International, partnered together with Divricean to make this event a reality. "We're very selective with who we partner with at HUB, and we chose Camp K because of the integrity of their leadership, the selfless work they do and the positive impact they have on the Salt Lake community. I couldn't be happier with how everything turned out."

Several other Utah companies and organizations graciously donated funds and services to help make the event happen, including Cigna, EMI Health, Health Equity Retirement, ABC4 Utah, UNUM, Principal Financial Group, Empower Retirement and Ruth's Diner. Catering was provided by Red Rock Brewery.
