

Experienced Dry Cargo Brokers

IFCHOR HANDY SA is looking for experienced dry cargo brokers to strengthen our teams in Lausanne and Copenhagen.

We offer a dynamic and open environment with the possibility of influencing the development and growth of IFCHOR Handy/Supramax desk globally.

IFCHOR is a global company with offices in Lausanne, New York, Singapore, Melbourne, Dubai & Copenhagen

If you have relevant experience, are in possession of excellent communication skills, and if you are independent as well as a team player, performance oriented, fluent in oral and written English (other languages would be advantageous) then please send us your application.

We offer an attractive and challenging position with a high level of freedom and responsibility, as well as a competitive salary package in line with your qualifications, and great opportunities for personal and professional advancement.

It is vital for us that our employees are skilled and committed to the business. We are therefore seeking individuals who share our desire to create sustainable success and retain our position as one of the world's leading and most competitive players.

If you identify yourself as a shipbroker with IFCHOR please do not hesitate to contact:
