

Analyst/Associate, Investments and Business Development

Would you like to join one of the most dynamic and fastest growing shipping companies in the world?

Celsius Shipping is an integrated ship owning company offering access to proprietary investment opportunities within the maritime sector. Celsius works in close partnership with some of the world's leading private equity funds to acquire and operate maritime assets across a wide range of segments.

We are now looking to hire an Investments and Business Development Analyst/Associate, based in Copenhagen, to work closely with the investment team on due diligence, analytics and executing investment opportunities.

Key responsibilities include:

- Conduct research on commodity and shipping markets
- Screening investment opportunities
- Build detailed cashflow models on prospective deals
- Prepare due diligence packs, providing relevant, informative materials. This includes investment memorandums and various marketing materials
- Communicate with third party industry experts and analysts
- Assist with strategy development

As an analyst/associate, you will work closely with the investment team on the entire investment process – from opportunity origination and analysis to execution.

The Celsius Investment Team works in close collaboration with its sister-company, Breakwater Capital, based in London. Some travelling will be required.

Celsius seeks to hire individuals who are highly motivated, intelligent and have demonstrated excellence in prior endeavors. Candidates should also have:

- A top-class master's degree, or international equivalent, from a leading university
- Preferably some experience with financial modelling. Desirable background(s) could include investment banking, equity research, market research, project finance or corporate banking.
- Excellent analytical skills
- Excellent communication skills – Fluency in English and a Scandinavian language is a requirement
- Presentation skills – able to deliver compelling and concise presentations
- Strong work ethic and self-motivated
- Experience from, or genuine interest in, the shipping industry is an advantage.

For the right candidate, Celsius offers a competitive compensation package and an opportunity to gain valuable experience from an international, high paced working environment.
