

Marine Superintendent:

The Job

You will be a key member of our Fleet Department, supporting the operation of the managed ships with main focus in safety and closely working with HSQES Department and the Technical Superintendents.

As a Marine Superintendent we need you to be a cornerstone in ensuring that our company's safety culture is integrated into everything we do.

You will be also responsible for keeping a close cooperation between the vessels and the office and influencing colleagues in delivering safe and efficient operations. Conducting inspections and audits to the ships will be part of your regular activities as well as handling vetting inspections and the process related to them.

Your profile

- Education as Master Mariner, Dual Officer or a similar maritime background is required.
- Knowledge of the tanker business but also about matters related to dry cargo vessels (bulk carriers, general cargo, etc. ).
- To have thorough insight into safety, quality and vetting areas.
- You are motivated by a hectic environment where priorities constantly change and innovation is permanently required.
- You keep a narrow focus on quality.
- You never compromise with safety, you are not afraid to influence your colleagues in how to handle a safe and efficient operation and you step in and intervene if things are taking a wrong direction.
- You are an open and outgoing person with an appropriate sense of humor, you thrive in a global environment working with people from all over the world.
- Strong capabilities for team working.
- Fluent English is required but Spanish is also highly desirable.

What we offer

- A dynamic and International environment in a company with a financially strong platform and a business built on partnerships and long term relationship with customers and related stake holders.
- A highly motivated team and an interesting variety in tasks.
- A social and open workplace with good company benefits.
- A safe and healthy working environment.

Where

- Our headquarters are located in Valparaiso, Chile.
- The Company will guide you in those issues related with immigration, residence and work permit.
