The implementation of WBSC's play call video review system intends to support our umpiring crews with the latest technology tools to ensure the highest degree of fairness possible in competition. Listed below are the general guidelines, the list of reviewable calls and the protocol to challenge a call.

GENERAL GUIDELINES:

- Each Team Manager will have one (1) challenge per 7 innings of play.

- If the game goes into extra innings, each team will receive one (1) extra challenge.
- At any point of the game, the Crew Chief may review a call only if the affected team is out of challenges. (EXCEPTION: potential Home Run calls, which are reviewable at all times)

- If reviewable, the Home Plate Umpire will signal that the call will be reviewed. The Crew Chief and the call Umpire will then head to the Video Review screen for the review.
- When a review is initiated by the Crew Chief, both managers will be informed of the call that is being reviewed.
- The Crew Chief and the calling Umpire will evaluate the replay and make the final call.
- Upon completion of the review, the Crew Chief will signal whether the call stands or is overturned.
- The call by the Crew Chief will be final and may not be argued by neither member of a team. Any team member (player or coach) arguing a call that has been reviewed will be automatically thrown out of the game.
